Gromyko Turns Back On Herter...

SNARL LOOSENS

Geneva (AP) — Secretary of State Herter challenged the Soviet Union Wednesday to enter serious negotiations for concrete, self-enforcing agreements for European peace, but drew no encouragement from Andrei Gromyko.

The Soviet foreign minister rejected in advance the West's package plan for solution of the Berlin, German unity and European security issues.

Gromyko called the package plan, due to be presented in the Big 4 foreign ministers conference Thursday, an attempt "to muddle together various political problems into one tangle." He declared such an approach would completely block the work of the conference.

Get Down To Business

Herter got the conference down to business as chairman of the 3rd day of a session previously snarled by Soviet procedural moves.

He announced the United States, Britain and France will introduce proposals to ease tension "now spoiling relations between the free world and the Soviet Union." He promised U.S. participation in summit talks, which Moscow has been urging if the Russians will dicker here in earnest.

All 4 ministers finally presented their opening, speeches, delayed by a dispute over Gromyko's efforts to seat Communist Poland and Czechoslovakia as full negotiators in the conference.

The Russians persisted Wednesday, but got nowhere.

He said Poland and Czechoslovakia, early victims of Nazi aggression, should enter the negotiations now. He declared Western arguments opposing such a step—which include the basic theme that the Big 4 alone are responsible for a German settlement—are without foundation.

Herter said the American position on Poland and Czechoslovakia remains unchanged. France and Britain held to the same view. A British spokesman said later there was nothing to bar Gromyko from raising the issue again.

Gromyko has won limited speaking rights for the Communist East Germans at the conference. The same rights also apply to the West Germans. That was decided Monday.

With Herter in the chair, things got rolling at last Wednesday.

Western spokesmen announced after the 2-hour, 45-minute meeting in the Palace of Nations that the Western powers will present their package plan Thursday.

This plan, ironed out at a Western conference in Paris last month, links a solution of the Berlin crisis to German unification and a European security agreement. It is understood to provide for uniting Germany by a series of steps under Big 4 auspices—and with the help of an All-German committee—over a period of two or three years.

Herter and his Wesetrn colleagues stressed in their opening statements that the West will not be steamrollered by Russian diplomatic pressure.

Grmyko snapped back in a 25-minute speech at what he called "dangerous new rearmament" in Europe.

Gromyko apparently referred to NATO nuclear missile bases.

Free Elections

Geneva (AP) — The western powers will propose Thursday that West and East Berlin be united by free elections at once while West and East Germany gradually approach reunification.

The proposal for all-Berlin elections — reported by diplomatic informants —is a new feature of the "package plan" for Germany which the western foreign ministers are to put to the Russians at the big 4 conference.

Romans Fires Blast At 3 NU Law Profs

By Betty Person

Sen. Jack Romans of Ord read to the Legislature Wednesday a copy of a letter he has sent to the University of Nebraska Board of Regents containing "certain unsolicited information given to me" concerning Law College faculty members Merton Bernstein and Frederick K. Beutel, and former faculty member Caleb Foote.

Romans earlier had introduced and then withdrawn a resolution asking for a legislative investigation of the "hiring practices" at the Law College stemming from an incident concerning Associate Prof. Bernstein.

Bernstein, at the request of Gov. Ralph Brooks, had drafted the governor's proposed state labor relations act. Testifying in the bill's behalf before the Labor and Public Welfare Committee, Bernstein was questioned by Romans about his membership in several organizations including ADA (Americans for Democratic Action).

Was Member

The law professor told the committee he was not and never had been a member of the ADA. Two days later Bernstein wrote a letter to the committee in which he stated that "contrary to my recollection, I was a member of the Americans for Democratic Action, though I have nothing which shows when."

Bernstein also wrote: "My boss, Senator Morse is and was an officer of ADA, and I frequently represented him at ADA meetings as his alternate—but I haven't been a member for a very long time."

Romans said Wednesday he was "greatly concerned" about Bernstein's "deliberate falsehoods to the committee as to his membership in ADA."

Cites Publication

Romans said the "ADA World," a monthly publication of the ADA, "shows that Mr. Bernstein not only was active in the ADA, but was a member of an important national committee of that organization." Romans cited 1954, 1956 and 1957, 1958 issues of ADA World.

Romans continued, "It asks too much of the imagination to believe that Mr. Bernstein could have served on the far reaching Domestic Policy Committee of the ADA as late as 1958 and forget in a year that he had ever been a member of that organization.

Bernstein said late Wednesday that he had not forgotten about serving on various ADA committees, but that when he was taking a part in the activities it was "in my capacity as Sen. Morse's assistant." He reiterated that he was not a member as such of the national organization at that time.

Beutel, Too

Turning to another faculty member, Romans noted that Beutel was hired as dean of the Law College when it was re-opened in 1946 after being closed during the war years, and that he was later replaced as dean but remained as a faculty member.

"Mr. Beutel also shows an affinity for membership in organizations of dubious character," Romans charged.

He then referred to an article in the May, 1953 issue of the "American Mercury" magazine on "Communism and the Colleges."

Quoting from the article, Romans said, "The Committee for Medical Freedom is

Rest, Quiet Is Ordered For 'Disturbed' Winters

. . . Comedian Arrested, Hospitalized

San Francisco (UPI)—Comedian Jonathan Winters, taken into custody for antics on San Francisco's waterfront, will go to a private institution for "rest and quiet," his manager said Wednesday.

"He is wound up and emotionally upset," said his manager, Martin Goodman. "We'll try to find a place where he can get a rest."

Goodman said Winters' wife, Eileen, had talked to the television and night club comic and San Francisco General Hospital doctors and agreed to take their recommendation that he be confined in a private hospital.

Dr. T. E. Albers, superintendent of the hospital, said the comedian was "quite disturbed" and that staff psychiatrists recommended confinement.

Handcuffed

The 32-year-old Winters was handcuffed and taken into custody Tuesday while acting "irrationally" on and about the square-rigged sailing ship "Balclutha," which is tied up at the San Francisco embarcadero on public display.

Julius Larsen, 79, caretaker of the vessel, called police, who said the moon-faced comedian told them he was John Q from outer space and had been here "for light years."

"This boat is a fake" Winters was quoted as saying. "It's got an outboard motor on it."

'Strain'

Goodman admitted that the comedian had been showing signs of "strain" recently. He said Winters might have been worried about a recent minor operation.

In addition, he said, Winters prefers not to work in night clubs. He said his client recently joined Alcoholics Anonymous because he "couldn't hold the small amount of liquor he did drink."

"I think it might be hard for him to work where everyone is sitting around drinking," Goodman said.

Winters has been appearing at a local night club.

SUNNY, BUT WON'T GET ANY HOTTER

Look for fair skies and little change in temperature Thursday, according to the weatherman, with highs ranging from the mid 50s northeast to the 60s elsewhere.

The mercury made it up to 65 at Scottsbluff Wednesday for the state high, while Chadron recorded the low of 36.

Lincoln had a high of 54 and a low of 48.

Weathermen reported that dust had risen as high as 12,000 to 14,000 feet Wednesday, and it was settling and obscuring visibility on the ground.

'Brooks' Duties Not Delegated'

. . . Conrad Replies To Carpenter

"The constitutional duties of the office of governor have been, are and will continue to be exercised by Ralph G. Brooks. They have not been delegated."

So spoke Administrative Assistant Robert Conrad Wednesday in reply to a bevy of charges from Sen. Terry Carpenter delivered on the floor of the Legislature.

The Scottsbluff senator said Conrad was "taking over" the duties of governor. Further, he said Brooks was acting as a "puppet governor" manipulated by Democrats Bernard Boyle of Omaha and James Quigley of Valentine.

Brooks Conrad

'Better Things To Do'

"The senator would better concern himself with matters of legislative jurisdiction than with comments on the activities of routine employes," Conrad told newsmen.

"It would seem to be extreme ill grace to deny the governor a reasonable period of convalescence, and if there is any concern about his true condition, the senator needs only to read the newspapers to which a full disclosure has already been made."

On other criticism directed at the governor's request for the resignation of State Penitentiary Warden Joseph Bovey, Conrad said:

"There is no question about the governor's desire to replace the warden with a man of his choice.

"But, that choice is not his nor that of his political party, but will be the choice of the Board of Control and will be made without regard for political affiliation.

"It will be made on the basis of prolonged qualification contrary to earlier practices."

Feist And Vinegar

Brooks, Conrad said, is "full of feist and Vinegar."

He may be back in the office within 10 days or two weeks, the aide estimated.

"His condition is excellent. His attitude is enthusiastic. His zeal for work is tremendous," Conrad said.

Shown news reports of the Carpenter attack, Brooks had no immediate comment on the charges. He indicated, however, that plenty would be forthcoming at a news conference later this week.

John L. Blasts Control

Labor Bills Like Chains–Lewis

Washington (AP) — John L. Lewis thundered Wednesday that labor control bills before Congress would "fasten a castiron chastity belt around the waists" of American workers.

The 79-year-old United Mine Workers Union chief told a House Labor subcommittee all these proposals to curb union corruption would reduce workers to second-class citizens. He said there are plenty of laws already in effect to handle corruption.

"Play fairly, ye givers of the law," he counseled.

Lewis dismissed the abuses spotlighted in Senate rackets hearings as isolated cases, and involving only "the dregs of the labor movement."

'Star Chamber'

He likened the Rackets Committee, headed by Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark), to "the star chamber under the Tudor kings, with a touch of the Spanish inquisition."

Lewis showed his old fighting style, delivering his arguments with a barbed thrust that made the committee members wary in their questioning.

At one point, he was asked why Teamsters Union members elect James R. Hoffa to office.

Staring meaningfully at the committee, Lewis retorted:

"I often wonder how many people, barring those in labor unions, are elected to office."

Wearing dark clothes and a tiny rosebud in his lapel, Lewis alternately sat erect and slouched in his chair, driving home points with a wagging finger, sometimes with a pounding fist.

'Damn Chain'

"I believe when you tamper with the liberties of 70 million workers you're tampering with the liberties of all Americans," Lewis said. "Damn the chains and those who advocate them."

As for a bill already passed by the Senate, Lewis said this measure is "more refined and delicate, and the misery isn't quite so strong."

The bills generally would require detailed reporting of union fund-handling to the government and would require unions to follow Democratic practices, with the Secretary of Labor given broad powers to enforce the safeguards.

U.S. Jupiter Is Launched

Cape Canaveral, Fla. (AP) — A powerful Jupiter, the Army's reliable intermediate range war rocket, rumbled aloft early Thursday on the start of a 1,500-mile flight test.

The Jupiter which soon may carry another monkey passenger to the fringes of space, roared on high from a pool of flame and smoke at 12:52 a.m. (EST).

The 60-foot missile was fired on its 17th development test aimed at checking out reliability and accuracy before it is assigned for troop use.

Mullen Man Dies Near Valentine

Lincoln Star Special

Valentine —A 79-year-old Mullen man died Wednesday afternoon in a two-car crash at the crest of a hill on U.S. Highway 83, 25 miles south of here.

Alexander B. Cox was a passenger in a car driven by Milton C. Kidder, also of Mullen. Their southbound auto collided with a northbound vehicle driven by Dorothy B. Nachtman, 31, of Ainsworth.

The death raises the state traffic death toll to 96 as compared to 85 at this time a year ago.

Star Visits, Finds R.G. 'Chipper'

By Don Walton

Gov. Ralph Brooks appears hale and hearty 26 days after he suffered a "slight" stroke which hospitalized the chief executive April 17.

The governor chatted exclusively with The Star Wednesday at the Governor's Mansion in his first visit with newsmen since he met the press in his hospital bed 20 days ago.

Brooks is planning a full-fledged press conference at the Mansion either Thursday or Friday.

Only obvious aftermath of his illness is a continued weakness in the governor's right leg which makes walking difficult.

However, Brooks ambles about the Mansion without the aid of any permanent support.

"I'm walking around all right. Don't you think?" the governor said as he demonstrated his speedy recovery.

Brooks exercises the leg every day, he noted.

Other manifestations of the stroke have cleared rapidly.

Strength is quickly returning to his right hand. The governor's signature, shaky and unusually large a few days after the stroke, has now returned to nearly the same shape as it was before Brooks was hospitalized.

Functional weakness of the left cheek which the governor displayed at the hospital news conference has disappeared.

The slight speech difficulty which Brooks evidenced when he stumbled over a few words at the hospital is gone.

Brooks said he is "feeling fine."

Nattily Dressed

Nattily attired in a dark spring suit, the governor said he was "well rested." He looked it, too, having lost the worn, drawn appearance which momentarily startled newsmen at the hospital 3 weeks ago.

Brooks has also gained back some of the weight which he lost during the past year, in which time he left his McCook school superintendent's position to capture the Democratic gubernatorial nomination and then the big prize itself last November.

Brooks may return to the office within 10 days or two weeks, depending on doctor's orders.

Wertz Says Statement 'Confused'

By Del Harding

Motor vehicle homicide defendant William T. Wertz testified Wednesday afternoon that he was "confused" when he told a Safety Patrolman that he approached a State 2 cutoff curve at 65 to 70 m.p.h. last Oct. 6 just prior to the accident which killed Constance Lane of Lincoln.

Wertz, 19, said he was travelling only 50 to 55 m.p.h. approaching the curve and that he entered the dirt road on which his car rolled over at 45 to 50.

The youth took the stand in his own defense at his trial in Lancaster District Court after the state rested its case at 11 a.m. Wertz was the only defense witness and the trial adjourned after his hour of testimony.

County Atty. Elmer Scheele and defense Atty. Jack Devoe will make their closing arguments to the jury when court resumes at 9 a.m. Thursday. Then Judge Paul White will instruct the jurors on the law governing the case and the jury will retire to reach a verdict.

Wertz admitted on the stand that he and John E. Olney, 18, of 1301 Piedmont had been drag racing at speeds up to 65 m.p.h. along the cutoff from about 40th St. to 24th St. But Wertz said he and Olney, in whose car Miss Lane was riding, stopped at about 24th St. and talked before starting up again.

He said, however, that from about 24th to the cutoff curve —a distance of about 7 city blocks—that he did not drive faster than 50 to 55.

65 To 70 MP.P.H.

The state earlier had introduced in evidence a written statement taken from Wertz by Safety Patrolman Perry Emmons. Emmons quoted Wertz in the statement — which Wertz signed the night of the accident — as saying he was driving 65 to 70 approaching the curve.

Emmons also testified that he made test runs around the curve in March and that he had no difficulty negotiating it at 70 mph.

Wertz testified that he continued straight onto the dirt road where both his and Olney's cars overturned because "I figured if I turned there would be a collision between John's car and mine."

Olney was convicted of motor vehicle homicide in April and was sentenced to 1-2 years in the Men's Reformatory and fined $500. He has appealed to the State Supreme Court, and a hearing is scheduled Friday on a request that he be allowed to remain out of prison on bail pending outcome of the appeal.

Students May March Today On Statehouse

A student "march on the statehouse" by University of Nebraska students to protest recent statements about faculty members on the floor of the Legislature was asked Wednesday night at a largely-student gathering.

The announcement, given at a showing of a foreign film, asked those interested in "freedom of speech for faculty members" to meet at the State Historical Society Building at 11 a.m. Thursday.

Ike Cool Toward Khrushchev Visit Idea

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower shrugged a somewhat cold shoulder Wednesday toward the idea of a visit to the United States by Premier Khrushchev of Russia.

Eisenhower ducked replying directly to a news conference question whether Khrushchev would be officially welcome if he expressed a desire to come to this country.

"You people love to ask 'if' questions, don't you?" Eisenhower countered with a grin. "I think that you ought to wait until we hear something about it and then see what the situation is."

Visit Seems Probable

Since some other high officials were saying, although not for direct quotation, that the administration is reconciled to the idea of a Khrushchev visit, there was some reason to believe Eisenhower was being deliberately cautious in his comment.

One theory was that Eisenhower wanted to avoid saying anything which might encourage Khrushchev to make an early bid for a U.S. visit. According to this theory, Eisenhower might want to hold off pending a decision on a site for a summit conference which might bring Khrushchev to this country anyway.

Speaking of Russians in another connection, Eisenhower said "It is very difficult to see behind someone else's forehead" but that the Soviets seem to be trying to use the Big 4 foreign ministers talks at Geneva as a propaganda platform.

Centers On Money

The important problems at home which figured in the news conference to a large extent centered around money.

Eisenhower prodded Congress, at the conference and again in a special message, to get busy on what he called "very badly needed legislation" to:

Boost the federal gasoline tax 1½ cents a gallon to keep the vast highway construction program going, give the federal housing administration authority to insure an additional 6 billion dollars of home mortgages, attack the problem of a 3½ billion dollar wheat surplus.

And Eisenhower jumped at a chance to put in another plea for a balanced budget. In fact, he said, that is, "the minimum target we are looking for." In times as prosperous as these, he said, "we ought to be getting some surpluses, we ought to be paying off something on our debt."

Surprise Greets Dr. Frank Court

There was a pleasant surprise for Dr. Frank Court at the Centennial dinner of St. Paul Methodist church.

Members of the congregation of the city's oldest church presented a program on his life.

Honored guests at the surprise for the pastor were his parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frank W. Court of Waterloo, Ia.

one of the newest units of the Communist front apparatus. It lists among its sponsors the names of 42 professors. The profesors who are sponsoring the C. M. F. include the following . . . Frederick K. Beutel, Nebraska . . .".

'Trash'

Prof. Beutel told The Star Wednesday that in reference to the magazine article he had only one word of comment, "Trash, and you can quote me on that."

Beutel then added that he thought Sen. Romans "ought to be censured by the Legislature as McCarthy was censured by the Senate for dragging in such trash."

The article was written by J. B. Matthews, who also wrote an article about communism in the churches at about the same time and who subsequently was discharged as a member of the staff of the McCarthy investigating committee.

'Little Doubt'

In reference to former NU faculty member Caleb Foote, Romans said: "Examination of Mr. Foote's record leaves no doubt that there is little or no investigation into the personal background of the law professors before they are employed.

"Mr. Foote's FBI record shows that he was a convicted felon," the Ord senator continued, "having been indicted on 3 occasions and convicted twice. He served prison time on both convictions."

Romans concluded that he "sincerely" believes that there is "more than sufficient information to warrant a thorough investigation into the employment practices concerning the Law College."

In reading his letter, Romans also noted that following "publicity . . . on the Bernstein matter," a freshman law student came to him (Romans) and following an interview gave him written comments on Beutel's teaching philosophy in a constitutional law course. (The written comments were attached to a mimeographed copy of Romans' letter to the Board which was distributed to the senators.

The Ord senator also suggested to the Board that "when you are interviewing these law students, find out how many had their names fraudulently placed on the 'whitewash Bernstein' petitions without their knowledge or prior approval. I know of at least one and there may be others."

'Pardon Appears Sufficient'

. . . Hardin Says

Chancellor Clifford Hardin of the University of Nebraska pointed out Wednesday that former NU law instructor Caleb Foote was "cleared by full presidential pardon" before joining the NU faculty. The chancellor added that this "seems . . . sufficient authority."

The full statement, made by the chancellor after an attack on Foote by Sen. Jack Romans on the floor of the Legislature:

"In as much as I have no first hand knowledge about the remarks which were made in the legislature or of their purpose, I am not, of course, in a position to comment on them specifically.

The Record

"I do know from the record, that Caleb Foote was a staff member at the University of Nebraska College of Law; that he came here from a staff position at the University of Pennsylvania in 1954 and returned to that university in 1956.

"At the time Mr. Foote was hired, I understood that his record contained information on his status as a conscientious objector during WW II which resulted in 2 convictions which were subsequently cleared by full presidential pardon from the federal government some 7 years before he came to Nebraska.

"If these are the felonies referred to, it seems that Mr. Foote's record had been cleared by sufficient authority."

Foote himself, now a professor of law at the University of Pennsylvania, told The Star by telephone that he would not comment on the situation other than to say that he had been informed of the chancellor's statement and that the statement "clarifies the whole situation."

Students Say All Signed

Students who signed letters defending Prof. Merton Bernstein said Wednesday night there was no doubt that all whose names were listed had signed the letters.

All 10 students listed on a letter to the editor by members of Bernstein's labor law class were contacted individually, and all affirmed that they had signed or authorized their signatures after having the letter read to them.

The Star individually contacted 21 of the 23 students who signed a letter to the Legislature. All said they had signed, and all further said that all signers were present in the room at the time of the signing and that each could vouch for the signatures of all others listed on the letter.

Wreck Probed

. . . For Secrets

Washington (UPI) — Army intelligence agents are investigating whether a man who perished in Tuesday's crash of a Capital Airlines plane near Baltimore was carrying military secrets, it was disclosed.

The victim was Charles W. Drannbauer of Kansas City, an employe of American Telephone and Telegraph Co. (AT&T), who was a specialist in SAGE, a vast electronic system designed to both warn of enemy attack and help direct retaliatory forces.

A spokesman for AT&T was reported in Kansas City to have said Drannbauer may have been carrying classified documents relating to SAGE. He was the supervisor of a group which was in charge of defense communications for the Eastern Defense Command.

The Baltimore News-Post said Drannbauer's briefcase was found in the wreckage of the plane but no documents.

Cause Sought

Charleston, W. Va. (UPI)—Aeronautics investigators swarmed Kanawha Airport, seeking the cause of a Capital Airlines Constellation crash which killed two persons and injured 25 others.

The 4-engine plane bound for Atlanta, Ga. caught fire and burned after it skidded at the west end of a 4,800-foot rain slick runway and slid tail first down a 250-foot embankment.

Eastern Star Meet Elects High Officers

Johanna Whited and Clyde R. Worrall have been elected Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron, respectively, of the Grand Chapter of Nebraska, Order of the Eastern Star, here for its 84th annual session.

Others elected were: Ruth Knight, associate grand matron; Lynn Moomey, associate grand patron; Margaret Worthman, grand conductress, and Martha Jane Dudden, associate grand conductress.

Re-elected were Wilma Harms, grand secretary, and Kathryn Brock, grand treasurer.

Installation of elected grand officers and appointed grand officers will be held Thursday evening.

Train Hits Truck; Driver Said 'Fair'

Orlin Starck of 4529 Holdrege was reported in fair condition at a local hospital after he suffered head and chest injuries Wednesday morning in a truck-train accident in Hallam.

The Safety Patrol said the 2½-ton pop truck he was driving was struck by a local freight train at the crossing on the main street of Hallam. The truck was knocked 45 feet.

The Patrol said trainmen reported the truck driven by Starck, 43, appeared to be stalled on the tracks as they approached.

Fishers Pause In N.Y. On Their Way To Spain

By Arthur Everett

New York (AP)—Eddie Fisher and Elizabeth Taylor honeymooned at the Waldrof-Astoria hotel Wednesday, during a stopover en route to Spain. They were enjoying the first solitude of their brand new marriage.

The radiant couple was wed Tuesday in Las Vegas. But they spent their wedding night with 113 other passengers in a jet airliner that sped them to New York from the west coast.

Their departure time for Spain was indefinite. They have trans-Atlantic flight reservations for Thursday, and tentative reservations for Friday.

"My Wedding Day"

"It's my wedding day and I feel wonderful," Liz told newsmen as she landed at Idlewild Airport in a state of bliss. "We didn't sleep a wink. We spent the whole night in the lounge."

The glamorous movie queen wore a pink and gray dress, pink coat and gray hat. Eddie, dressed in gray, commented:

"We're a little weary but we're very happy."

The couple hopped a limousine for the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in Manhattan and their first marital chance to be alone together.

The newleyweds expected to be abroad 3 or 4 months. They are headed for Barcelona where a honeymoon yacht awaits them.

Sentence Deferred In Williams Case

Omaha (AP) — Orlis Trone, alias Henry Williams, pleaded guilty in District Court to charges of robbery. Sentence was deferred.

$3,750,000 City Capital Improvements Eyed By Plans Board

By Virgil Falloon

Lincoln's proposed 1959-60 capital improvements program totalling $3,750,000 was reviewed by the City-County Planning Commission Wednesday for conformity with the city's comprehensive plan.

The proposed capital program compares with the $4,-200,000 program budgeted for the 1958-59 year ending Aug. 31.

A new charter amendment now requires the city departments to program for the next 5 years as well as for the coming fiscal year.

Subject To Review

The program is subject to review by the planning commission and then by the Capital Improvements Committee before presentation to the Council by May 31.

Members of the committee, also established by charter change, are the public works director, finance director, planning director, and the mayor or representative of the council.

Last year's $4.3 million program included approximately $380,000 in tax funds. The remainder represented bond funds or other revenue sources.

No Fund Sources

Planning Engineer Doug Brogden said fund sources are not indicated in the proposed 1959-60 program of $3.7 million.

However, The Star's preliminary check showed at least $350,000 would involve general taxation with the remainder possibly coming from bond and other revenue funds.

Departmental programming beyond 1960 was sparse, but some $1.4 million was listed. These future items included a new 66th and Vine fire station, $78,000 in 1963-64; new main city libaray, 1960-62, $1.1 million, and park improvements, $127,000 plus non-estimated items as Woods Park swimming pool, golf course, new park land, and new recreation building.

Bulk of the 1959-60 program of $3.7 million was proposed by the Department of Public Works with a $3,560,373 budget.

The department program included $32,500 for new storage building; $615,873 for street improvements including the K and L project and $200,000 for resurfacing; $70,700 for street lighting including $45,-000 for ornamental lighting of K and L.

Water Division

The department's water division reported $1.3 million including 51st street pumping station reservoir, $420,000, 48th & Vine to 32nd and A water feeder main, $350,000, new servicing building-warehouse at 27th and Merrill, $150,000, and College View elevated tank,, $109,000.

Sanitary Sewer

Proposed sanitary sewer construction total $1.1 million, including the Salt Creek interceptor main, $800,000; 51st street extension, $140,000, and Havelock sewer improvement, $430,000.

Storm Sewer

Storm sewer construction was listed at $100,000. The commercial light division proposed $259,000 in capital improvements.

Welfare Safety

The Public Welfare and Safety Department listed a $109,925 total, including $32,000 for traffic signals, $2,000 for police target range, $35,000 for new city hall elevator, and $40,925 for park improvements.

Library

The city libraries proposed $75,000 for start of new main library and $5,000 for Bethany branch airconditioning and parking lot.

The Planning Commission, which takes no action on the cost or the priority of projects, approved the planning engineer's analysis of the programs conformity with the comprehensive plan.

The charter after next Monday requires that the Planning Director review and pass on all capital improvement projects for conformity before appropriations may be made by Council.

Plans Board OKs $29,248 1960 Budget

The City-County Planning Commission has proposed a budget of $29,248 for 1959-60.

This compared with the current budget of $28,681.05, according to Planning Engineer Doug Brodgen.

Both the City Council and the County Board must approve the proposed budget. Under the joint operation, the county assumes one-fifth of the budget.

The new budget includes $720 total for salary increases to present personnel. It includes a $22,635 payroll and $4,000 for planning surveys.

The Commission also approved an application for federal matching funds for the proposed $41,000 city-county comprehensive plan study. Proposed over a 18-month period, county cost would be $4,567 while the city would pay $11,308.

Spelts Query Draws Retort From Hanson

Democratic State Chairman Russell Hanson of Newcastle Wednesday answered Republican State Chairman Richard E. Spelts Jr. on his inquiry, "Who is governor."

"There is no question in the minds of all Nebraskans that Ralph G. Brooks is governor and that, rather than being as Republican Chairman Spelts said, 'a failure in his life's work,' he is bringing guidance, direction and purpose to Nebraska state government," Hanson said.

"Policy announcements are Brooks' policies and he is more in touch with Statehouse affairs than any governor in recent Nebraska history."

Hanson told the Grand Island Republican chairman that his question "is a refreshing departure from the inquiry of the Nebraska people in recent years concerning 'do we have a governor.'"

Reick Infant Dies

Word has been received of the death of Joel Lynn Reick, infant son of Sp.4 and Mrs. Milan Reick of Fort Amador in the Canal Zone.

Toughest Job On Earth

By WILLIAM O. DOBLER

What would you guess to be the hardest job in the world — something involving great physical stress or something requiring continual mental activity? It might be a corporation president, a tough legal case, handling a jack hammer, drilling for oil or any number of things.

But the really toughest job, the one that wraps all the physical, emotional and mental strain into one big package, is the raising of children. Not often does the job end in such disaster as was the case with the three little children who perished while playing with normally harmless plastic bags or the two little girls who lost their lives as a result of a playful prank by boys. But when it does, words cannot describe the sorrow that is felt for the parents of these children. And such tragedies bring close to mind the tremendous responsibilities that go with raising children.

No Greater Task

How many times have you found a youngster sitting under the front or back wheel of the car as you prepared to back out of your driveway? And how many little ones have darted out in front of your car or stood playing in the middle of the street as you drove leisurely along?

By some stroke of fate, you probably have averted any personal tragedy in connection with such things. But there are many people who have not and many homes which, as a result, have a void yet today that will never be filled. But it doesn't take disaster to prove the rearing of children to be the toughest job going.

★

The number of near-disasters the average family goes through is enough to convince any parent. It takes a whale of a lot of close and constant attention to get the job done, plus plenty of plain old luck. Nearly as many pins, for instance, seem to find their way into Baby's mouth as into her diapers. What else but luck is it that you happen to be in the room with Baby just as she puts the open "safety" pin to her lips?

You could have just dashed into the next room for a second to get the dust rag or something else. That split second is all the baby would have needed to get the pin down. And they could drown in the bathtub in a matter of minutes if they weren't watched every second. But luckily, you seem to be right there just when the little fellow topples over and hits his head on the faucet.

And there is that older boy who climbs everything in sight, from the tallest tree to the nearest telephone pole. But somehow, if he falls he only breaks an arm or leg and generally manages to get up and back down again unscathed. But before you know it, he is playing in the flood waters, down a sewer pipe or into some other potential death trap.

He comes out of it most of the time o.k., but you always wonder how when you catch him at it. Probably more children have fallen down flights of stairs than have walked down. They get a good thumping from head to toe, a slight case of panic and maybe a scratch or two, but in five minutes they are back out playing with the gang.

The medicines they can and often do get to are enough to wipe out an army. But if they get a cap off, they are discovered by Mother 99 per cent of the time. Most of the rest of the time, it's only the aspirin cap they get off unnoticed which, at worse, calls for an internal pumping job at the hospital. It might just as easily have been a strong sedative they took. But luck and watchfulness somehow saved them. The knives the little ones play with may be too dull for their intended use but they would cut an artery in two. When they are run with, no more dangerous situation can be found.

The Medicine Cabinet

But again, the parents come around at the right time, to snatch the weapon from the hands of the little one before she can do herself in. There is just no end to the multitude of ways in which a child can and is very likely to place itself in grave danger. And there can be no end to the vigilance of parents in this most difficult job of child raising.

Teller Sets Terms For His Testimony

WASHINGTON — It's highly unusual that a congressional committee gives a witness the kid-gloves treatment. And it was both interesting and unusual that the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee let Dr. Edward Teller, semi-father of the H-bomb, set his own terms for testifying the other day. Dr. Teller specified in advance that he would testify at 11 a.m. and must leave at 1 p.m. He then made a statement in defense of the confirmation of Adm. Lewis Strauss as Secretary of Commerce, and, after almost no cross-examination departed.

If the senators had been less worshipful of Dr. Teller they might have discovered some interesting facts. The most interesting is that he occupies a rather vague status with the government and the University of California so that he can simultaneously accept retainers of $1,000 a day as a consultant for private industry, including General Dynamics.

In the 1959 edition of Who's Who, Dr. Teller lists himself as with the government's Livermore Laboratory, which is located at the University of California. Yet an inquiry at the Atomic Energy Commission in Washington, which is in charge of the Livermore Laboratory, this week brought the information that Dr. Teller was no longer with the government, but with the University of California. An AEC spokesman explained that this severance from the government had been arranged so Teller could avoid any conflict of interest in taking fees from private industry.

However, a summary of Dr. Teller's income, received by the Senate committee as an afterthought when senators failed to question him, shows that for the past five years Dr. Teller has been receiving fees from private industry. These fees ran as high as $25,000 from General Dynamics in one year, $22,000 from General Dynamics in another, though this year he has received only $1,250 from the big defense firm.

☆ ☆ ☆

Significantly, General Dynamics corporation has received one contract from the AEC to build a gas-cooled atomic reactor and is about to receive another. The firm has hired Dr. Frederic De Hoffmann, Teller's long-time close associate, and put him in charge of gas-cooled reactors.

It has also hired C. Arthur Rolander, the attorney retained by Admiral Strauss in the purge trial of Dr. Robert Oppenheimer. Rolander is now Washington attorney for General Dynamics.

The big G. D. firm has also hired Everett Hollis, former public relations man for Admiral Strauss.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Love Of One For Another

By BILL ANDERSON
Star Staff Writer

An old Indian legend weaves the tale of a young maiden who died broken-hearted when her chosen warrior was killed in battle. She could not face life without the brave she loved.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kildaw of 1747 No. Cotner wonder if 11-year-old Penny could survive the death of old Red, her Irish setter mate.

Red is probably the equivalent in age of a 100-year-old man. He's over 17 dog-years old, and although his steps reflect arthritis and his rich red coat is graying, he has lost none of the qualities that endear him to his mate and to the family.

If dogs can fall in love, then Penny and Red found the magic recipe in 1950. When the Kildaws returned home one summer afternoon, they found Red — then a stranger — lying on the lawn beside Penny. The devoted setter would not leave and his owner had apparently abandoned him, so the Kildaws adopted the lovable dog.

☆ ☆ ☆

While Penny is somewhat selfish, her mate is the exact opposite. A true gentleman, Red steps back and waits until she eats. He also stands aside to let her walk out the door before him, refuting the idea that chivalry is dead, at least among dogs.

When Mrs. Kildaw's father — the Rev. Robert S. Campbell, 82-year-old retired Evangelist-minister — takes Red for a walk and leaves Penny inside, she stands at the window and whines until they return.

Penny's emotions are sharply tuned to the welfare of her mate and of the family. When Mrs. Kildaw became ill a short time ago, the devoted setter stayed by her side like an anxious nurse.

REV. ROBT. S. CAMPBELL, WITH PENNY (LEFT) AND RED
. . . contentment in the sunset years . . .

Penny walked around in a daze when Red was struck down by an attack of pneumonia in 1955. It was touch-and-go for several days, but Red's will to live and the aid of Lincoln animal doctors finally snapped him out of danger. Penny fawned over him like a mother hen while he convalesced.

☆ ☆ ☆

Penny was brought to Lincoln from Reno, Nev. in 1948 and soon found Nebraska weather not to her liking. She had no inkling of severe thunderstorms, and flashes of lightning and loud thunder-claps terrified her. When Red came into her life, she soon infected him with the same fear.

Now, when lightning and thunder split the sky, both dogs huddle together under the nearest cover until the storm subsides.

On sunny days, they lie on the lawn gazing at squirrels chattering and scampering in trees above their heads. A friendly old Persian cat watches them from her doorstep perch over the neighbor's fence, but neither the squirrels nor the Persian draw more than an interested glance.

Penny likes to watch cartoons on TV, especially those with cats and dogs in conflict. Red would rather sleep.

Time is swiftly passing both dogs by, but they're content. They have each other and the love and companionship of the Kildaws and the Rev. and Mrs. Campbell to keep each day filled with happiness.

Cold Shoulder Treatment

The Legislature's Banking, Commerce and Insurance Committee was about as unresponsive to the billboard regulation bill as the group could have been. They knocked the measure out with a 5-0 vote—two members not voting. The peculiar thing to figure out in such cases as these is how members of the Legislature can justify the cold shoulder they give so many interests.

The measure was opposed, naturally, by billboard spokesmen themselves. But it was backed by a host of state agencies and private interest groups and individuals. Yet the committee killed the bill with a farcical excuse. Two members said the financial aspects of the issue were too indefinite. They evidently decided to ignore a provision in the bill which called for regulations, only when economically feasible for the state.

The committee did not appear to give any consideration whatsoever to the real interest of the state of Nebraska and the driving public. It is one of the most difficult actions of the Legislature to understand in this regard. The committee made no effort to go even part way in attempting to see what, if anything, could be worked out. The bill was drawn in such a way as to guarantee that the state could lose nothing in the regulation process so long as the program was carefully administered.

The death of the measure at this time means its burial forever for all practical purposes. By the time the Legislature meets again in two years, much of the Interstate route will have grown beyond control of outdoor advertising. The committee action is definitely lacking in true and honest public spirit and honesty. It leaves the state, once again, behind the pack in foresight and progress.

The Unfriendly Senate

The nation is being treated to the unusual spectacle of Senate resistance to presidential appointments. It is a situation that is stimulating mixed feelings.

Within a month four top level nominees have felt the galling resistance of a doubting Senate. It did, finally, confirm Clare Booth Luce as ambassador to Brazil but the President lost his case when Mrs. Luce rejected the job after a bitter exchange with critical senators.

The path of Louis Strauss, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, now nominated for the cabinet post of Secretary of Commerce has been especially rough. Now the Senate has run into a roadblock on the confirmation of C. Douglas Dillon, as second man in the State Department. Ogden Reid, designated ambassador to Israel is meeting with delay.

Under normal circumstances a presidential nomination is tantamount to confirmation, and it can be surmised, in this instance, that the Senate eventually will bow to presidential discretion in most if not all of these recent nominations. But it is clear that the usual confidence and goodwill between the White House and the Senate chamber are not at their best.

Both have contributed their share to this unneighborliness and the President is not blameless. He was injudicious in his nomination of Strauss. Whatever the capabilities of that erstwhile admiral, who is really not a military man but a businessman-financier, it is fully on the record that he was a highly controversial figure as head of the AEC. He was in too close proximity to the Dixon-Yates imbroglio to escape some of its stain. His attitude toward nuclear fallout and peacetime atomic power won him no friends. His virtue may be of a noble sort but his public behaviour, itself, suggests a union with controversy which will not pass away simply by changing his job.

There Is A Way Out

A census analysis continues to show a thinning out of population in the rural sections of Nebraska, offset to some extent by a gain in the size of cities.

Twenty-four principal cities gained 22 per cent since 1950, and most of that gain was in a few larger centers. Meantime, the state as a whole experienced a 10 per cent gain. Eighteen of the state's 93 counties actually showed a population loss.

That has been the trend for a number of years. There was no surprise in the recent analysis — only the news that nothing as yet has been able to change the picture.

The population shift is something that Nebraska can live with. It is a negative readjustment to changing times, the mechanization of agriculture and a national farm policy that is operating against the small farm owner. A state cannot argue with irrevocable trends, but one is headed for trouble if it doesn't correct its philosophy to meet facts.

Just under the surface of this rural population decline is a shrinking of opportunity which means a still greater exodus later on of present young people who must find opportunity somewhere else. A declining area sets up its own chain reaction.

The answer cannot be in de-mechanization. A portion of it can be found in a more determined stand against federal farm policies that work against the family sized farm.

An even more solid way recommends greatly more emphasis on resources development, both industrial and natural. Nebraska must reject an anchronistic leadership that denounces capital investment, especially public invesment, that would open new fields for economic improvement and individual opportunity. The development of the Platte Valley, the Republican Valley and the growth of the rural electrification movement have been powerful factors both in building population and expanding the wealth of Nebraska. It would be dismal to contemplate the condition of the state had those things not appeared. A good deal more of the same sort of progress would dissolve most of the anxiety about a state of shrinking numbers.

Labor Is Growing Politically Smart

WASHINGTON—In the earliest presidential campaign in years, labor is getting ready actively for the battle of 1960. There will be exceptions, but the chief targets will again be the Republicans

David Dubinsky, president of the International Ladies Garment Workers, has sounded the tocsin. He has told his union's convention in Miami that the way must be cleared for "a positive rather than a negative government." He is a member of New York's liberal party, but he was speaking for the Democrats against the Republicans—the only choice which greatly matters in this country.

Labor has learned a great deal about politics since the days when it went down to defeat with "Jumping Joe" Ferguson in the effort to purge Senator Robert Taft. That was the nadir of Labor's political reputation in America, if not its fortunes. It has learned a great deal since.

One of the things it has learned is to keep quiet about what it is doing politically. Today Labor rarely brags in public of its power; neither does it openly threaten its foes.

☆ ☆ ☆

It learned the hard way that the political choices made by its officers cannot always be effectively communicated to its members. In this area it has recently done its most effective work. There is little doubt but that in the 1958 campaign Labor voted more solidly than ever before. And perhaps more members of labor unions voted than had ever voted in a non-presidential campaign. Labor was helped notably by the presence of right-to-work proposals on the ballots of several states.

A secret discovered by Labor's political experts is now paying off. That is that a powerful factor in a union man's vote is his wife's opinion. With remarkable assiduity, Labor has been cultivating its wives for four years.

The two women who head this work, Esther Murray in the east and Margaret Thornburgh in the west, are personally unassuming. They have, nevertheless, become among the most influential women in American politics.

☆ ☆ ☆

Labor's political education committee is now holding a series of 20 area meetings of local officials in preparation for 1960. An AFL-CIO officer says that the meetings are for the purpose of "studying our navel." Actually, the meetings are for a reassessment of Labor's performance in 1958 and a preview of 1960 techniques.

The meetings have been embarrassingly successful. They were doubled in number this year so that they would be smaller and supposedly more effective. The attendance has remained as high as when far fewer meetings were held. A recent workshop at Cleveland for labor leaders from Ohio and Pennsylvania drew 1,500.

Labor has now forged, and is perfecting, an organization which in many states is far better manned than the organization of either major political party. And whether leaders of national labor like it or not, the organization is beginning to produce candidates. That was certainly not the intention, but when one initiates the unschooled into the mysteries of politics, it probably is the inevitable result.

LB658

Lincoln, Neb.

Enactment of LB658 as introduced by Sen. Terry Carpenter of Scottsbluff constitutes a major accomplishment of this legislative session. This bill will start the taxing of the hitherto tax-exempt multi-million-dollar horse-racing complexes. There is always a demand for governmental services in operating these race tracks, and no real reason why they should not pay their share of the cost.

For the last quarter of a century — and that should be long enough — these parimutuels in Nebraska by reason of their political power and social prestige have enjoyed tax immunities running into the millions.

Obviously more than a mere "thank you" is now due Sen. Carpenter for his herculean efforts in placing a tax on these wagering operations. I suggest that the Legislature in some manner reward the senator for his invaluable services, which were quite beyond the usual duties of his office.

Postage Rates

Bellevue, Neb.

There is now a proposal to increase first-class postage to five cents. Perhaps Uncle Sam should go out of the business of handling mail and turn it over to some concern such as the Railway Express. Paying government expenses by boosting prices is a poor way to sock those who still write letters. We still pay our share of taxes—to be wasted on space travel madness, etc. The Railway Express handles packages much quicker than the Post Office now. The difference in cost isn't too great when one considers the services given by Railway Express. Mail was at one time handled by pony express. I'm sure modern transport methods are much more dependable now.

Firestone Hour

Lincoln, Neb.

For over 30 years the "Voice of Firestone" has come into American homes once a week—first on the radio and now for many years on television. It is one of the best musical programs ever produced.

All the well known stars of opera have sung over it. Its orchestra is unexcelled.

If enough people write in and urge to have the program continued next year, we may be able to have it. We would be helping our children have a musical education. There are so many programs on television not worth a "hoot." Let's not allow this outstanding one to be discontinued.

Who Started It?

Lincoln, Neb.

How many people remember 1939? At that time a newly elected governor—Dwight Griswold, Republican—called on Joseph O'Grady, warden of the Penitentiary and a Democrat, to resign. No charges were made by the governor.

O'Grady resigned without contest and a Republican was appointed to succeed him.

Who started the spoils system?

Gov. Pat Brown Would Be Willin'

LOS ANGELES — Sen. Jack Kennedy didn't say yes and he didn't say no, on the question of whether he'll enter the California presidential primary next year. But the members of the Los Angeles Press Club who queried him on the matter came away with the impression that Kennedy will not choose to run against a man whose support and whopping 60 delegates he may sorely need later on — Gov. Pat Brown.

Brown is getting the bug, which is the constitutional right of any American and, in Pat's case, a justifiable right. He beat Bill Knowland by a million.

The men around Brown are, if anything, keener to see him run as a favorite son candidate in the primaries, and beef up his strength for the convention, than even Brown is. They are, among others, Frederick Dutton, an intellectual attorney who was a strong Stevenson man, and Warren Christopher, a bright young attorney for the ultra-conservative L. A. law firm of O'Melveny and Myers.

☆ ☆ ☆

Pat's ready for the big-time. A fellow who is close by Harry Truman called me up and said, "Here's a tip, keep an eye on Frank Pace."

I asked why.

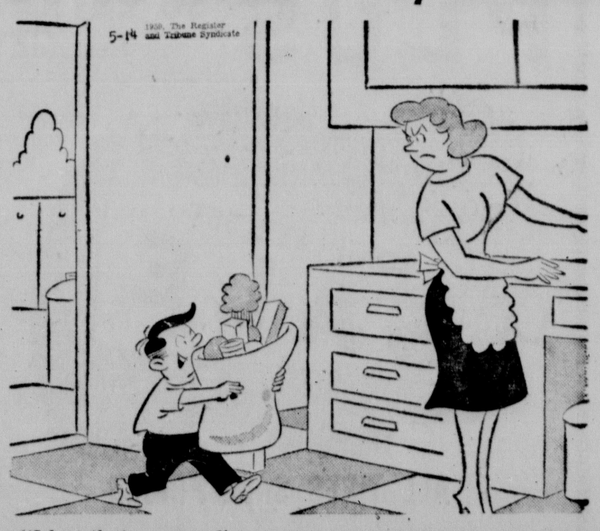

"Don't ask questions," he said. "Just keep an eye on Pace."

The Frank Pace in question, of course, is the former secretary of the army under Truman, and more recently president of General Dynamics.

The inference, I gathered from the cryptic message, is that Mr. Truman believes the 1960 Democratic convention here in Los Angeles will develop into a hopeless snarl involving the adherents of Kennedy, Symington, Johnson, Humphrey, Brown Stevenson and so forth — and a compromise pleasing to all might take first prize. Especially a compromise candidate who has had government experience, knows the problems of management and labor, and has not had to stand up and be counted on all the controversial measures of the day.

3 Jet Fighters Plunge Into Atlantic; Death Toll In Crashes Mounts To 36

By The Associated Press

A sudden series of 5 airplane crashes in the United States and coastal waters took 36 lives in a 24-hour period through Wednesday. The tragedies posed some perplexing questions for investigators.

Three Air Force jet fighters hurtled virtually together into the Atlantic Ocean off Myrtle Beach, S.C., Wednesday in a puzzling circumstance: Witnesses to the triple crash said they saw no collision. The three pilots presumably were killed.

The air force identified the dead pilots as Capt. Mack Bulger of Oklahoma City, Okla.; 1st Lt. Delano G. Lund of Baker, Mont.; and 1st Lt. Morris L. Uden of Buffalo, Kan. All three have families living in the Mrytle Beach area.

Investigators said an explosion, possibly inside the fuselage, caused an airliner to crash with a loss of 31 lives Tuesday near Baltimore—but the question of what caused the explosion still was unanswered.

Less than an hour earlier another airliner skidded in a landing at Charleston, W. Va., and fell down a 200-foot embankment. Two of 43 persons aboard were killed. Six were injured.

A near-collision between a military jet and an airliner was reported in California.

And from the Virgin Islands came a report of a jet crashing at St. John Island, east of St. Thomas. Details were not available immediately.

Knifing Suspect Pleads Innocent

George Bigsby of 2014 S pleaded innocent Wednesday in County Court to an assault and battery charge.

Bigsby, 44, was charged in connection with an alleged knife assault Monday on William Butcher of 2034 U, who required treatment for a cut wound at a local hospital.

Bigsby's trial was set for May 23 by Acting County Judge Ralph Slocum. A $500 appearance bond was required.

UNION OFFICIAL JAMES B. CAREY JOINS IN LEWIS STRAUSS ATTACK

Washington (AP) — Union official James B. Carey joined in an attack on Lewis L. Strauss as secretary of commerce.

Carey, president of the International Union of Electrical Workers, said Strauss has a Napolenic complex and "is not temperamentally qualified to hold a position of such vast power."

Also, Strauss made one of his frequent returns to the witness stand and called Columnist Drew Pearson a liar for reporting he had procured "top secret" information about another witness.

Carey, Strauss and Pearson all testified in a more than ordinarily confused hearing of the Senate Commerce committee, which is considering whether to recommend Senate confirmation of Strauss as secretary.

Practically everybody contradicted everybody else's testimony, and Sen. Gale McGee (D-Wyo) asked in a general sort of way:

"Somebody's lying here — is that the understatement of the day?"

President Eisenhower once again spoke up in behalf of Strauss at his news conference, saying he finds opposition to the nominees baffling.

At the hearing, Pearson acknowledged he was wrong in reporting Strauss had a "Top Secret" report before him on an Atomic Energy Commission scientist, David Inglis, when Inglis recently testified that most scientists regard Strauss as unqualified. Actually, the columnist said, the document was marked "Confidential" — a lower security classification.

A Strauss aide, Robert Dodds, said he himself stamped the report "Confidential." He said he got his information on Inglis from sources other than the FBI or the AEC. Strauss formerly was chairman of the AEC.

Carey said he is convinced Strauss "does not sufficiently recognize, at least insofar as the area of his own activity is concerned, that we have a government of laws, not of men."

Terry Claims Boyle, Quigley Pull 'Puppet' Brooks Strings

Sen. Terry Carpenter continued his charges against the Democratic administration Wednesday by calling Gov. Ralph Brooks a "puppet governor" and that Democrats Bernard Boyle of Omaha and James Quigley of Valentine were pulling the strings.

His statements came following an earlier floor discussion when he questioned the power of authority being exercised by Robert Conrad, Brooks' administrative assistant, during the governor's illness.

Carpenter charged that former Democratic National Committeeman Quigley and Boyle, present national committeeman, are "calling the shots during the governor's illness."

He added, "Conrad knows he can't get a pat on the back for the governorship without the support of Quigley and Boyle."

Conrad has been mentioned frequently as a possible Democratic gubernatorial candidate in 1960.

Boyle later answered that Carpenter is a "blatherskite" and an "outstanding mugwump," and that his charges were so ridiculous they hardly deserved serious reply.

Defending Brooks, however, Boyle said, "No governor in the recent experience of our state has devoted himself so arduously to the duties of his office or has advocated such constructive legislation."

Boyle said it appears the "states outstanding mugwump is again seeking to ingratiate himself with the Republican powers for personal political advantage in 1960. He has been a turncoat before and I would suggest that we have not yet seen the last of his spiraling whenever it suits his personal gain."

To which Carpenter replied: "His (Boyle's) statement seems to show the proper lack of appreciation for the things which I have unintentionally done for the Democrats in the past.

"I'll just add the titles he confers to others I've acquired along the way, but I won't back down from my original statement — it still stands," Carpenter declared.

Groups To Mull A-Raid Authority

About 75 state and federal officials in Nebraska will meet in small groups Thursday to determine how best to manage Nebraska resources in case of a nuclear bomb attack.

Regional Civil Defense engineer Kenneth A. Lake of Denver said some "confusion" is expected to result, as such cooperation has never before been attempted.

The problem is to decide which agency—state or federal —will take charge of what functions in case of an all-out national emergency, he said.

U.S. Post Office Official To Attend State Convention

The Hon. John M McKibbon of Washington, D.C., assistant postmaster general in charge of the Bureau of Operations of the United States Post Office Department will be attending the state convention of the Nebraska Chapter of the National Postmasters Assn. in Lincoln next week.

The 3-day convention will begin Sunday and continue through Tuesday, Lincoln Postmaster O. E. Jerner announced.

Other postal officials attending will be Frank Barr, Wichita, Kan., regional operations director; and George A. Carpenter, inspector in charge, Kansas City, Mo.; and John Snyder, Oconomowoc, Wis., vice-president of the national association.

Roger Closs of Wymore is state association president.

Unicam Shows Grit: Adjourns Reluctantly After 8-Bill Scrimmage

By Betty Person

Nebraska lawmakers had trouble agreeing on many matters before them Wednesday afternoon, even requiring an 18-14 vote on a motion to adjourn before they called it a day.

Before the afternoon session was finished, however, the senators killed 3 bills on general file while advancing 5 measures.

Surviving stout opposition was LB646 which grants $1,000-a-year pay raises to the directors of the 3 departments of Insurance, Agriculture and Motor Vehicles.

The bill, introduced by Sens. J. O. Peck of Columbus, Peter Claussen of Leigh and Arthur Swanson of Holdrege, originally called for a $4,000 increase in the insurance director's salary.

This had been whittled down to $1,000 in previous floor action. An approved amendment to increase the agriculture director's salary by $1,000 made each salary $9,000 a year.

When the bill came up again Wednesday, Sen. Joe Vosoba of Wilber succeeded in amending it to raise the motor vehicle director's stipend from $7,000 to $8,000 a year to bring it "in line" with the other salaries.

A motion to kill the measure snagged on a 17-17 deadlock, and it was then advanced by voice vote.

The legislative ax was applied to LB377, introduced by Sens. Vosoba and John Munnelly of Omaha, a bill requiring that new cars must be equipped with multiple-beam headlights and manual facilities to lower and raise them, and also requiring that motorists must dim their lights when following another vehicle.

Another measure chopped down was LB391, introduced by Sen. Tery Carpenter, which would have authorized additional pay of up to $20 a case to county attorneys for handling tax lien foreclosures.

The third bill killed was LB348, introduced by Sens. John Donner of Elgin and Hans Jensen of Aurora, designed to strengthen regulation of grain containing noxious weed seed.

The 3 other bills advanced were measures introduced by the Judiciary Committee to amend existing statues.

They were:

LB364, establishing the date upon which and from which a garnishee's liability is to be determined.

LB357, limiting the amount of judgments on appeals from municipal courts to no higher amount than asked in the lower court.

LB356, increasing the jurisdiction of municipal courts in Lincoln and Omaha to civil cases involving $2,000—a $1,000 increase.

Keep Religion Logical, Says Top Scientist

People should use their intelligence and strict logical thought just as much in religious matters as in science, Nobel prize-winning physicist Dr. E. T. S. Walton from Dublin, Ireland said Wednesday in Lincoln.

The noted physicist told Wesleyan University students at a regular weekly chapel service that "to do otherwise would show a contempt for religion which men do not show towards science.

"All conclusions whether in science, religion or other spheres should be regarded as provisional," he said. "Errors and omissions in our reasoning may lead us to faulty and even false conclusions."

Dr. Walton is in the United States under the auspices of the national board of education of the Methodist Church to visit 19 Methodist-affiliated college campuses.

Alumni Head To Keep Post

Lincoln Attorney Warren Urbom, a 1950 graduate of Wesleyan University, will run unopposed for a second term as president of the Wesleyan Alumni Assn.

Urbom

Ruth Smith Cederdahl, class of 1923, will also be unopposed for a 9th consecutive term as association secretary.

Director of Alumni Affairs William Hill announced these additional candidates for office:

First Vice-President—William Benker, '39 and Dwight Williams '17, both of Lincoln.

Second Vice-President—Rhea Rice McClatchey, '48 of Lincoln and Jackie Harrison Akert of Lincoln.

Third vice-president—Harold N. Read, '27, of Lincoln and W. Stanley Good, '37, of Lincoln.

For lay representative to the board of trustees—Paul F. Boeye, '22, of Mounc, Minn. and Dr. Myron C. Waddell, '26, of Denver.

For ministerial representative to the board of trustees—The Rev. Laurence E. Ney, '32, of Portland, Ore. and The Rev. James Irwin, '41, of Valentine.

Abandoned

Washington (AP) — America's space scientists have abandoned plans to launch a pig into space.

NASA's director of program planning and evaluation, Dr. Homer Joel Stewart, explained the decision to the Aviation Writers Assn.:

The capsule that is to carry first animals, then men out into space as a preliminary to orbiting around the world is designed so that the passenger will recline on a sort of contour couch.

But, Stewart reported, NASA discovered that a pig "gets uncomfortable on its back."

Commission Sees 2 Solutions To Statehouse 'Squeeze'

Capitol Building Commission members generally agreed Wednesday that the only answer to the growing space problems of Nebraska's state government is a new state office building.

However, the immediate answer, they agreed, might well be better utilization of present facilities in the Statehouse.

With that thought in mind, Buildings and Grounds Supt. ing makes sense," State Engineer Roy Cochran said. James Delehant was requested to prepare a detailed diagram of space usage in the Capitol.

Requests for additional space from 4 state agencies Wednesday prompted the investigation.

Although it entails many difficulties, "the idea to move the Highway Department to a separate new build- "it may be the answer."

Delehant reported that "the Supreme Court wants a new building."

The Statehouse, he said, has "no additional space. The whole solution is another building."

He suggested however, that until that time arrives, state agencies will "have to learn to live a little closer together."

In other discussion, commission members generally frowned on air conditioning the entire building because of the price tag. It was estimated in 1953 to cost $1½ million.

In an effort to conserve space, State Purchasing Agent A. Clifford Anderson told the Commission he has suggested to various agencies that they microfilm old records.

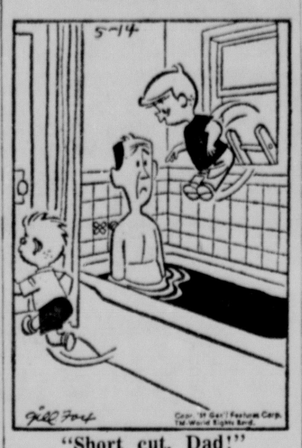

Additional space was requested by Anderson, State Education Commissioner Freeman Decker, members of the State Railway Commission, and Game Commission Director Mel Steen.

Air conditioning requests for the laboratories of the Bureau of Dairies, Foods, Weights and Measures within the Department of Agriculture and Inspection ran into some difficulty.

A general Commission policy has been to disapprove requests to air condition. Window units which would protrude into one of the Capitol's courts would mar the beauty of the structure, one member suggested.

Delehant received approval to repair north and south sidewalks, replace dead fir trees on the south, replace shrubbery about the building and obtain an estimate of the cost of repairing cracks in second floor marble.

Test Slated On Calming Shaky Floors

An experiement will be undertaken at the Governor's Mansion to determine how to best alleviate floor vibration.

The Capitol Building Commission agreed Wednesday to authorize Omaha architect Leo Daly to conduct an experiment in the first-floor reception room at the Mansion to see if the Omaha firm's suggested solution to the "trembling floors" will work.

A Lincoln attorney was employed to analyze architectural and construction contracts to determine whether the cost of work on the floors would have to be borne by the state.

The contractor's bond is understood to expire June 1.

Proposed solution to the vibrating bar joist construction is to place sheet lead on the cement floor of the reception room. Over this would be placed a one-half inch thick sponge rubber pad covered by the carpet.

Estimated cost: $3,625.

County Levies $196.50 Larson Estate Tax

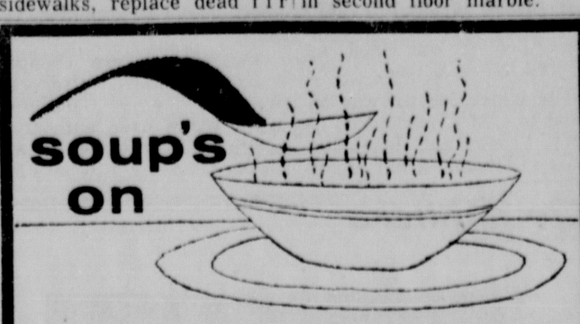

An inheritance tax of $196.50 was levied in Lancaster County Court against the $84,822.89 estate of the late Carl A. Larson of Lincoln.

Mr. Larson, who died March 14, lived at 1662 Perkins.

Terry Criticizes Conrad's 'Inroads Into Power' During Brooks' Illness

Sen. Terry Carpenter Wednesday questioned the power being exercised by Robert Conrad, administrative assistant to Gov. Ralph Brooks, during the governor's illness.

Speaking on a point of personal privilege in the Legislature, Carpenter said, "I don't presume to remain quiet and let the administrative assistant take over the duties of the governor of the state."

Referring to Conrad's asking Penitentiary Warden Joseph Bovey to resign, then asking the Board of Control to fire Bovey, Carpenter said, "It seems a truly political attempt to nullify the authority of the Board of Control."

The Scottsbluff senator said he favored having the Board of Control under the jurisdiction of the governor's office, but that "until that principle is established" he doesn't see how Conrad could do what he has done in the present setup.

Sparks Criticism

Carpenter's speech touched off a floor discussion which included the governor's illness, criticism on the handling of details concerning Brooks' illness, and questioning whether Republican Lt. Gov. Dwight Burney should have taken over while the Democratic governor is ill.

Sen. Harold Stryker of Rising City acknowledged that the release of details concerning the governor's illness was handled "poorly," and that "we should have been kept up to date on his condition."

But he suggested that under the separation of executive, judicial and legislative powers "the things happening in the governor's office are the business of the governor. Whether they are handled to our likes or dislikes is none of our business."

Sen. John Cooper of Humboldt maintained that when Brooks became ill, Burney should have taken over.

He noted that Vice-President Richard Nixon took over for Eisenhower when the President became ill and that the situation should have been handled the same in Nebraska.

Cooper also protested the handling of news concerning the governor's illness, and the fact that Brooks has had only one news conference since becoming ill.

"There is no reason to conceal these things or hide them," he continued.

Study Requested On Variation Of High Schools' Cost Per Pupil

The Legislature was asked Wednesday to order an interim study of the reasons for variation in the costs per pupil of operating high schools in the state.

The resolution, No. 36, was introduced by Sens. Frank Nelson of O'Neill, Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth and Dale Erlewine of Grant.

Cost of free high school tuition varies in the state from $6.50 to $37 per week, the resolution noted.

The Legislature recently fixed $15 per week as the amount a high school district should receive per pupil for educating students from outside the district.

The resolution asks a study "of the facilities of high schools and courses of study offered by high schools, to determine the average free high school cost and the reason for the variance in facilities furnished and courses of study offered."

Rites Held For Rev. Stephenson

Fairbury, Neb. — Funeral services were held at Loveland, Colo., for the Rev. F. H. Stephenson, a former Fairbury minister.

He served as pastor of the Fairbury Christian Church from 1944 to 1954, before moving to Loveland where he was pastor of the First Christian Church. Surviving are his wife; a son, Keith of Lincoln, and a daughter, Faith.

WEATHER AHEAD

Nebraska temperatures for the next 5 days will average 3 to 5 degrees above normal in west to near or slightly below in east; cool at beginning of period, warmer Friday and Saturday, cooler by end of period. Normal maximum temperatures range from near 70 to middle 70s; normal minimum temperatures 43 to near 50. Precipitation is expected to average .10 or less, occurring as scattered showers toward end of the week and again by end of the period.

NU Fratmen Give Help For 'Face-Lifting'

Seven Lincoln service organization buildings will get a face-lifting Saturday by University of Nebraska fraternity members.

Some 300 NU students will clean, paint and repair the buildings as part of the Interfraternity Council's annual Community Service Day.

The Belmont, Malone and Southwest Community Centers, Camps Minis Kuya and Milford-Kiwanis, LARC School and the Salvation Army will be assisted by the IFC project.

Marty Sophir, community service chairman, said each fraternity has been instructed to send at least 12 men. All equipment needed for the work will be furnished by the centers where the work is to be done.

Stan Delaplane's POSTCARD

Well, what is new in the merry, merry month of May? Trouble piles up in drifts while I am away.

The tragedies and near-misses are recited to me with gusto by my teen-age daughter as we drive over the Sierra Nevada from Reno.

"And Inc. needs to be defleaed! It's awful!"

Inc. is our dog. Part Australian Shephered and a little of something else—we have not decided exactly what. He is the world's only incorporated dog, holding valuable shares of a famous corporation.

The corporation was set up by me some years ago. It is famous mainly because while EVERY corporation in America has shown all-time profits, this corporation has not moved a financial muscle.

☆ ☆ ☆

"How about your grades?" That is a trikcy question. And there was a good deal of tricky squirming in the answer.

In the first place — without answering the query — there was a long recital. It seems that the teachers do not make themselves clear! Sometimes we think the teachers themselves do not know the answers!

"Can I drive the car?" Driving has taken social precedence over EVERYTHING in our set. We all have learner's permits—permits that let you drive if your parents are with you.

"Absolutely not on highways. Only on back roads."

Well that shows that my child has the meanest father in the world. And the amiability of other fathers was pointed out in some detail. Mr. Fizz lets his daughter drive ANYTIME she wants to—even down to the store alone!

☆ ☆ ☆

We are driving into California via Highway 50. Over the passes and down the American river. We are driving an import. A little British Singer and it fairly makes a young woman's hands itch to get at it.

Speaking of itch, one of our girl friend's cats has ringworm and we think we have got it. Or maybe it is poison oak. That is a tender tragedy for today.

"Meantime — "Can we stop at the Nut Tree? I'm starving."

"You just had breakfast!" This is an amazing thing about traveling with a daughter. While they are still eating, they are planning the next meal. At the same time discussing their reducing diet.

The Nut Tree is our favorite. In our opinion the best highway place in the world. A charming maze of restaurants and shops just outside Sacramento. I am secretly in favor of this stop and we will do it.

"The fruit salad with the marshmallow topping?"

☆ ☆ ☆

"Any other problems?" Yes, now that I mention it. The small boy is a problem. He YELLS. He yells if he can't have whatever he wants when he wants it.

"But that is natural. Small boys always holler for what they want."

"But then he throws himself on the floor and yells."

Okay with me. This boy is not frustrated. He yells for a while. Then he takes up some other worthy pursuit. Like pursuing the dog with an ax.

Nine Given Clemency At Pen Hearing

The State Pardon Board Wednesday granted clemency to 9 applicants heard at the Penitentiary.

One man was commuted to a detainer, and one woman and 7 men received paroles.

Warden Joseph Bovey and Governor Brooks were not at the hearings.

Brooks is recuperating from a light stroke and Bovey apparently was working on a report to the State Board of Control.

Brooks, Atty. Gen. C. S. Beck and Secretary of State Frank Marsh make up the Pardon Board.

Action of the board:

Penitentiary

Victor E. DeVries, 27, of Baltimore, Md., no account checks, 2-3 years from Lincoln Co., 1957, paroled.

Vearl Hall Jr., 25, of Omaha, burglary, 5 years from Douglas Co., 1957, paroled.

Richard Foley, 34, of Waterloo, forgery, 3 years from Douglas Co., 1957, paroled.

Joe Adams, 48, of East St. Louis, Ill., burglary, 6 years from Douglas Co., 1956, commuted to Illinois detainer.

Norman Blackbird, 42, of Macy, burglary, 3 years from Douglas Co., 1958, paroled.

Patrick J. Stanoscheck, 39, of Odell, grand larceny, 3-5 years from Gage Co., 1958, paroled.

Robert B. Reynolds, 41, a transient, no-account checks, 1-2 years from Lincoln Co., 1958, paroled.

Carl A. Deuer, 36, of Newark, N. J., forgery, 5 years from Scotts Bluff Co., 1956, paroled.

Women's Reformatory

Sara Jane Ziegler, 21, of North Platte, uttering forged instrument, 2-3 years from Lincoln Co., 1957, paroled.

Civil Service Bill Axed

The Miscellaneous Subjects Committee of the Legislature Wednesday killed LB716, the governor's civil service system bill 4-1.

A vote to kill the measure Tuesday after the public hearing on the bill failed in a 3-3 tie. Four votes are required to either advance or kill.

The Wednesday executive session lasted less than 10 minutes.

The bill, introduced at the behest of Gov. Ralph Brooks, would have established a civil service system for almost all state employs roughly comparable to the system used for federal employes.

The bill would exempt only a few employes such as chief deputies to elected officials, elected officials, department heads, members of boards and commissions and the State Safety Patrol.

Legislature OKs Resolution 'Approving' Soil Research Lab

The Legislature Wednesday approved a resolution which its sponsor said will enhance Nebraska's chances of landing a soil and water conservation research laboratory which the federal government contemplates establishing somewhere in the Great Plains area.

The resolution, No. 34, introduced by Sen. Hans Jensen of Aurora, was adopted 41-0.

It puts Nebraska "wholeheartedly" in support of the research laboratory project but does not specifically invite its establishment in Nebraska.

Sen. Jensen said, however, that the federal government is contemplating 4 large research laboratories and he is "hopeful of Nebraska getting one of them."

Officers Wives Salute Hawaii

Greeting Officers Wives Club members at the Officers Club on Wednesday were the wives of the 415th bomb squadron officers who served as hostesses for the OWC May luncheon. The hostesses were attired in muu muus, traditional dress of the Hawaiian Islands, in keeping with the luncheon theme, "A Salute to Our 50th State."

During the afternoon Mrs. Felix Hardison was honored, and was presented with a silver tray as a farewell gift from the club members.

AAUW Program

The May meeting of the Lincoln Branch, American Association of University Women, will be held Saturday following a luncheon at the Lincoln Country Club.

Program speaker will be Mrs. Frances Freeman Jalet of the University of Nebraska College of Law whose topic will be, "Segregation of Women."

We Hear That

Mrs. William Peterson left Lincoln Thursday, May 7, for York, Pa., where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Gerald Leeson and attend her granddaughter Catherine's high school graduation exercises.

Town Talk

—Our little red book is filled with numerous notations of interest this morning—and our notes read something like this: "Check DuTeaus—home soon" — "Contact someone about the Ted Egans—supposed to be moving to Lincoln"—"Hear there is to be a Scribblers party—find out"—"Check on Gay Nighters—if and when party—check on Patriarchs—" and more of the same.

* * *

—Well, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred DuTeau are home—They returned from their holiday in Hawaii on Wednesday morning—

* * *

—And Mr. and Mrs. Ted Egan and their two children, Keith and Beth really are moving from Omaha to Lincoln. They have purchased a home at 2115 Stockwell. Mr. and Mrs. Egan will not be strangers in town—Both are graduates of the University of Nebraska, where Mrs. Egan, the former Ruth Ann Hinds, is a member of Alpha Phi sorority. Mr. Egan is a member of Beta Theta Pi.

* * *

—Understand that the Scribblers, the literary branch of the Junior League, will be having a picnic on May 29 at the Alfred DuTeau farm. Included among the party guests will be the husbands of Scribbler members, and we hear that the festivities will be more or less a special courtesy to the new crop of Scribblers.

* * *

—There is no IF about the Gay Nighters party—one is planned for Saturday evening, May 23. Since the affair is to be complete surprise for the members we can't give any details on account of and because we don't know them.

We do know the members of the committee planning the festivities, however, and it includes Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gessner, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. William Henkle, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Stahley.

* * *

—Now about the Patriarchs—The group will dine at the Lincoln Country Club on Tuesday evening, May 26, and will elect new officers who will serve during the 1959-60 season. Following the dinner and election the members will have a choice between bridge and baseball—Those who elect to play bridge will remain at the club, and the baseball fans will hie themselves out to Sherman Field.

NU Faculty Wives Entertain

Wives of the University of Nebraska College of Medicine faculty from Omaha were guests on Wednesday at the May luncheon of the Faculty Wives Club, held at the Student Union.

New officers, installed at the meeting, include (seated, from the left) Mrs. Eugene C. Reed, president; Mrs. Clifford Hardin, honorary president; Mrs. A. Stuart Hall, secretary; and Mrs. Merle Stoneman, third vice president. Standing (left to right) are Mrs. Floyd Hoover, first vice president; Mrs. George Round second vice president; Mrs. Wendell C. Robison, treasurer; and from Omaha, Mrs. W. H. Taylor, Jr., Mrs. James Benjamin and Mrs. J. P. Tollman.

The following chairmen were announced by Mrs. Reed: program, Mrs. Robert Bowman; scholarship, Mrs. Samuel Fuenning; nursery, Mrs. Robert Koch; reservations, Mrs. Winton Ault; interest groups, Mrs. Richard Guilford; Nearly New Shop, Mrs. Lyle Young; Newcomers Club president, Mrs. J. NEWS OF SUBURBIA

EASTBOROUGH

Eastborough neighbors will be saying farewells to Capt. and Mrs. Merle Hahn and their two children, Becky and Janet, today when the family leaves Lincoln for a new home in College Station, Tex.

En route to Texas, the Hahns will visit in Pangburn, Ark., at the home of Mrs. Hahn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Johnson.

In farewell courtesy to Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Robert Bridges entertained at a coffee at her home on Tuesday, May 12. Fourteen neighborhood friends of the honoree were on hand for the informal evening affair.

Also heard that Mrs. Bridges was hostess to the members of her bridge foursome on Wednesday afternoon, May 13.

Mrs. Jesse Haith, Mrs. Raymond Scholtz, Mrs. Frank Coffman, Jr., and Mrs. August Brunke were hostesses on Wednesday when the former officers of the Havelock YWCA entertained the new officers at a luncheon. The affair was held at the Haith home.

The new officers include Mrs. Ivan Armstrong, Mrs. J. E. Shively and Mrs. Lillian Koch, and guests present for the afternoon were Mrs. Ted Marshall and Mrs. Charlene Greer.

Mention of the Haith family reminds us that Nancy Haith will celebrate her sixth birthday on Saturday, May 16, at an afternoon party held at her home.

Joining in the fun of the "circus" party will be Kathy and Jackie Carr, Corrine Galbraith, Carla Mount, Maureen Godsey, Marilyn Welch, Danny Ore, Randy Ritter and Nancy's brother and sister, Butch and Barbie.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. Haith will entertain for their daughter at a family party for which Nancy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Fifer and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carr, and her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hansen will be present.

Introductions are again in order this morning for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teubner and their two sons, Richard, who is two years old, and four month-old Dan. The Teubner family moved to Lincoln and into their new home at 240 W. Rio Rd. early in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Teubner came to Lincoln from East Lansing, Mich., where Mr. Teubner was on the faculty of Michigan State University.

New residents at 253 W. Rio Rd. are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hutchins who settled in their home two weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hutchins have three children, four year-old Leslie Ann, one and a half year-old Dean and Tracy Lee, who is three months old.

Lt. and Mrs. Larry F. Garrett and their twin boys, Ricky and Nicky, settled in their new suburban home at 521 No. 70th the middle of April.

Lt. and Mrs. Garrett are former Cotner Terrace residents.

Dear Abby . . .

A Great Undoer

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: As a loyal citizen of Nebraska, and in keeping with the spirit of the Lincoln Centennial, I defend my rights to grow a beard. However, my wife (and a wonderful wife she is) says, "NO WHISKERS OR NO KISSES!" I am sure there are other Lincolnites who are having the same difficulty, so please give us a solution.

BEWITCHED, BOTHERED AND BEWILDERED

DEAR B. B. AND B.: This is a pretty ticklish question. Explain to your wife the romantic history of Lincoln. (Jim Olson's book might help) . . . but start from scratch.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am 17 years old and have been going steady with this particular boy for over a year. This summer my steady and his aunt and uncle are planning a trip to Mexico. They invited me to go along. His aunt, who is about 30, has agreed to chaperone us on this trip. When I asked my mother if I could go, she flatly refused me. When I asked her for a reason, she said the answer was NO and she didn't want to talk any more about it! Now I feel she doesn't trust me. Do you see anything wrong with going on this trip with my boyfriend and an adult chaperone?

NOT TRUSTED

DEAR NOT: I agree with your mother, but she should have given you the reasons for her answer. Of course she trusts you, but she doesn't want you complicating your young life with unnecessary temptations. Even steel melts when subjected to enough heat.

☆ ☆ ☆

DEAR ABBY: I am married to a wonderful man. Maybe I'm silly but after nineteen years of marriage he still has everything in his mother's name. She is his beneficiary on his insurance, bonds and everything he owns. When I spoke to him regarding this about ten years ago he said he wanted to be "sure" our marriage would last. I have no intentions of leaving him, and if I ever did I certainly wouldn't want to take anything that didn't belong to me. We have three children and if something should happen to him I wouldn't have a quarter. His mother has a husband to support her. Should I bring this up again and risk ill feelings?

NO SECURITY

DEAR NO: You have let this very important matter go far too long. Bring it up immediately and insist on the protection that a wife and her children are entitled to.

☆ ☆ ☆

CONFIDENTIAL TO "FIVE FEET TWO": A girl who wants to eat her cake and have it too, usually winds up with a "crumb".

Soroptimists Name Officers

At the monthly meeting of the Soroptimists of Lincoln held Wednesday evening at the Hotel Cornhusker the members elected the following new officers: (from left to right, seated,) Maj. Mildred E. Thomas, president; Mrs. Margaret Davis, vice president, and Dr. Sue C. Stevens, recording secretary; and standing, Mrs. Jo Bonebright, corresponding secretary; Dr. Florence McKinney, treasurer, and Mrs. C. M. Stewart, director for two-year term.

A report on the recent regional conference was given by Maj. Mildred E. Thomas and Miss Anna M. Evans, after which the group addressed brochures for the Lincoln-Lancaster Safety Council, one of the club's service projects.

BSP Installs

At a recent meeting of Beta Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, the Ritual of Jewels ceremony was held for Miss Shirley Vinson, Miss Joyce Fankell, Miss Betty Jones and Miss Mary Cunningham.

Installed were the following new officers: Miss Norma Boldebuck, president; Mrs. John H. Foster, vice president; Mrs. Donald Hessler, second vice president; Mrs. Gordon Metcalf, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Shinn, recording secretary; Mrs. Dale Gish, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Mary Neu, director.

Mrs. Gordon Metcalf and Mrs. John Snyder were in charge of arrangements.

Rotary Anns

The Northeast Rotary Anns will meet for a 1:15 o'clock luncheon this afternoon at the University Club. In charge of arrangements for the affair is Mrs. Don Clifton, president of the group.

During the afternoon, election of officers will be held, and a program on hair styling will be presented.

Bridge Finals

The finalists in the Gamma Phi Beta Alumnae and Mothers Club bridge tournament will meet for a luncheon at the Lincoln Country Club on Saturday, May 23.

Following the luncheon, the final round of bridge will be played and awards presented to the winners.

The tournament has been played in 14 sessions, and the finalists include Mrs. Owen Beach, tournament chairman; Mrs. Beth Ramey, Mrs. Robert Nodel, Mrs. Don Strasheim, Mrs. Allan Holbert, Mrs. Ernest Egbert, Mrs. Harry Demeree, Mrs. Jerry Trimble, Mrs. Helen McGlassen, Mrs. Michael Smith, Mrs. Jerry Duling and Mrs. Randy Ewing.

To Attend Tops Club Convention

Leaving for the national convention of TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) Clubs in Chicago on Wednesday evening were delegates representing Lincoln clubs who were accompanied by Mrs. Georgia Bench of Greenwood, the "Continental Winner," Mrs. Irma Schmucker of Wilber, Nebraska state "Queen," and Miss Deborah Jensen, Lincoln, state "Princess."

To be named state "Queen," Mrs. Schmucker lost the most weight of any club member in the state during the past year. Mrs. Bench has lost the most, in her weight group, of any member in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, and Canada. Deborah has lost the most weight of any teen-age Tops member in the state.

From the left are (in front), Miss Deborah Jensen; and (back row), Mrs. Marion McCracken, Lincoln; Mrs. Georgia Bench of Greenwood; Mrs. Nels Jensen of Lincoln; and Mrs. Irma Schmucker, and Mrs. John Heckman of Lincoln.

PTA's Install Officers

A recognition program honoring sixth graders and their mothers was held Tuesday afternoon at the meeting of SARATOGA PTA.

New officers were installed by Mrs. John Schick, and a devotional service was led by Mrs. Albert Norton. Mrs. Alva Anderson, outgoing president, presented a report followed by two films, "So This Is PTA," and, "Capitol City."

Executive board members were hostesses.

Administration May Have To Ask Interest Rate Boost On Savings Bonds

Washington (AP)— The U.S. savings bond program has just suffered its worst slump since October, 1957, raising new questions about Uncle Sam's money troubles.

The Treasury announced Wednesday that the value of outstanding Series E and H savings bonds—the types bought by millions of Americans—declined in April for the first time since 1957's tight money period.

This pointed up the possibility that the administration may have to ask Congress to boost the 3¼% interest rate on savings bonds.

It has been apparent for many months that the bonds are losing some of their popularity because higher interest rates are available elsewhere.

In Washington, for example, some savings and loan associations recently raised their rates to 4%. This type of institution competes directly with the savings bond program.

Treasury officials said no decision has been made on whether to ask for a higher interest rate. They indicated, however, that the problem is being given close attention.

The department said the amount of E and H bonds outstanding dropped by 23 million dollars last month to $42,762,000,000.

April sales of the E and H bonds totaled 349 million dollars. Redemptions, including payment of accrued interest, amounted to 452 million. A year earlier sales trailed redemptions by only 14 million dollars.

Should the bond program continue to falter, the Treasury would face increased difficulties in managing a record national debt of 286 billion dollars.

Because many lenders foresee rising interest rates, they tend to commit their money only on a short term basis.

The Treasury had hoped to increase savings bond sales this year, putting more of the national debt on a long term basis and relying less on short term loans which often tend to be inflationary. If bond sales slump, however, the government's demand for short term loans will increase.

2 Nebraskans Win Press Fellowships

Two Nebraska women have been awarded summer fellowships in journalism by The Newspaper Fund, Inc., supported by a $75,000 gift from The Wall Street Journal.

The Nebraskans, Miss Hattie M. Steinberg of Lincoln, and Miss Roberta Holt of Kearney, will both use their grants for study at the University of Minnesota.

Miss Steinberg is journalism adviser at Lincoln Southeast High, and Miss Holt teaches journalism at Kearney High School.

Recipients of the fellowship number 140, and were selected from a field of 476 applicants. The winners will attend 37 different colleges and universities this summer.

The program is designed to "enhance" the teachers' professional knowledge of journalism so they may better inform young people of the broad range of career opportunities available in newspaper work," according to Don Carter, executive director of the fund.

Diverted

Warsaw (UPI) — Inspectors hastily diverted a trainload of scrap en route to a foundry for melting down when they discovered the freight cars held 4 tons of live artillery shells. The train, instead, was sent to an Army de-fusing center.

—$30,000 Tops In NBA—

Wilt, Warriors Agree On Pact

Philadelphia (AP)—Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain Wednesday became the highest paid player in the history of the National Basketball Association, signing a one year contract for more than $30,000 with the Philadelphia Warriors.

Warriors' owner Eddie Gottlieb said signing the 7-foot Negro ace meant prosperity for the entire league. He predicted a $100,000 gate increase for his Warriors and said Chamberlain's appearance would pack houses all over the circuit.

Chamberlain, who said his exact height is 7 feet, 1-16 inch, earned some $67,000 with the Harlem Globetrotters last year and could have equalled that in 1959. He said he is taking a cut to give up the role of clown for a place in big league basketball.

"I decided to play with the Warriors for 3 reasons," the 22-year-old Chamberlain told newsmen at a press conference. "First, I've always wanted to play in the NBA. It's the big league of basketball.

"Secondly, it gives me a chance to play with my hometown team and be home with my family and firiends. My family wants it that way.

"And last, but not least, I have a good future in Philadelphia in other phases of life besides basketball."

Prior to Chamberlain's signing, Bob Cousy's reported $25,000 plus salary with the Boston Celtics was considered the highest pay for an NBA performer. The Stilt, a national figure ever since his high school days in Philadelphia, is expected to make the Warriors a title threat in the NBA's eastern division. He'll join such Philadelphia stars as Tom Gola, Paul Arizin, Neil Johnston and Guy Rodgers.

The 249-pound Chamberlain, a smooth talker, said he didn't expect to have much trouble adjusting to the NBA style of play. He said the 24 second rule would be new to him, but he liked the rule and hoped the colleges would adopt something similar.

"My college playing at Kansas didn't help me to improve much because I was stuck in the pivot. It's congested there. You don't move around and can't perfect your shots and other phases of the game. I think my year with the Globetrotters allowed me to move a lot and practice certain shots."

Giants Spank Phils By 6-0

San Francisco (AP)—Fireball pitcher Sam Jones shut out Philadelphia on 2 hits Wednesday and fanned 12, the most for a National League hurler this season, as San Francisco whipped the Phillies 6-0.

A crowd of 5,128, the smallest for Seals Stadium since the Giants moved here last year, saw 3rd baseman Willie Jones ruin Sam's bid for a no-hitter with an infield single down the 3rd base line after two were out in the 7th.

The Giants wrapped up the victory in the opening frame as they ripped ex-teammate Ruben Gomez for 5 runs on 5 hits, including a 3-run homer by Willie Mays.

Jones fanned Wally Post 3 times and struck out each member of the Phillies' opening batting order at least once except Gomez who left the game after the first inning. Jones walked 5.

The Giants' big righthander, obtained from the St. Louis Cardinals in a trade this spring, pitched a no-hitter on May 12, 1955.

Jones notched his 3rd 1959 triumph against 4 losses. It was the first shutout for a Giant pitcher this year.

SPAHN GAINS 250TH

St. Louis (AP) — Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's matchless veteran, Wednesday night wrapped up the 250th victory of his major league career—a mark reached by only two other National League lefthanders—with a 7-hit 3-2 conquest of the St. Louis Cardinals.

The 38-year-old Spahn became a winner on Billy Bruton's 8th-inning homer after a tough duel with Larry Jackson, who gave the Braves only 6 hits.

Spahn had failed twice in attempting to win No. 250. This one evens his season record at 4-4. But he has been pitching in hard luck much of the time.

Eppa Rixey (266) and Carl Hubbel (253) were the only other National League lefties to win 250. Spahn is the 25th pitcher in major league history to reach the mark, the 16th since the turn of the century.

Spahn was shaky in the first two innings, then settled down to stop the Cardinals in his usual brilliant fashion.

Gene Green and Hal Smith opened the second with successive singles, then Alex Grammas scored both with a double to right-center.

But that was all for the Cards.

Stuart Homer Tops Dodgers

. . . Pirates Score 6-4 Win

Los Angeles (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates came from behind on a two-run homer by Dick Stuart and broke a 4-game Los Angeles winning streak by dropping the Dodgers 6-4 Wednesday night.

The Dodgers slipped into second place, but would have been nudged out of a first place tie with Milwaukee even if they had won. The Braves beat St. Louis, 3-2, and would have commanded a small percentage lead if the Dodgers also had won.

Stuart put the Pirates ahead, 5-4, in the 8th with his 5th homer. Dick Schofield, running for Smokey Burgess, was aboard. Bob Skinner followed Stuart's homer with a single and scored when Bill Mazeroski doubled to left.

Unbeaten Roy Face, who relieved Pittsburgh starter Ron Kline in the 7th, got his 5th victory. He gave up 3 hits and no runs.

Don Drysdale, seeking his 8th consecutive victory in the Coliseum, was the loser. He is 3-3. Drysdale, relieved by Clem Labine in the 8th, gave up 8 hits and all 6 Pirate runs.

Burgess hit a double and two singles before being lifted for a pinch runner and raised his batting average to .413.

Dodger catcher John Roseboro, celebrating his 26th birthday, suffered a split finger on his right hand in the 3rd inning and left the game. It was not known how long he will be out.

The Dodgers got 3 runs in the 4th. Two were unearned as Burgess and Bill Virdon committed errors. Norm Larker got the only Los Angeles hit in the inning.

The Pirates tied it in the 5th on doubles by Burgess and Verdon, a single by Roberto Clemente and a walk to Don Hoak. Hoak was passed 4 times in the game.

The Dodgers took a temporary lead in the 6th when Don Demeter hit a 350-foot homer to left center. It was his 8th this season.

Umpire Hal Dixon ejected Clemente from the game in the 9th when the Pirate outfielder put up a squawk after being called out at first.

Prediction Charts Help

There is much to question in the value of a state track meet prediction chart. Such a chart predicts the outcome of the meet, based upon both performances during the season and, to an extent, the opinion of the person making the chart.

The charts are not infallable because both track athletes and the charters' opinion are not infallible. There is plenty of room for error.

Nevertheless, I make out prediction charts each year for all 4 classes in the state track meet here Friday and Saturday. They help, at least.

I'd bet that the eventual winner would, at least, be within the top 5 or so on my chart if it's a close meet. Perhaps more important, they point out the crucial events—those events where a win is necessary to victory to this team or the other.

Central Could Romp

I expected to find Omaha Central on top in my Class A chart, but not by as large a margin as the defending champs show. Central last year scored 42 points, and the Eagles could match that total this season. Central could also be down around 20 points, in which case they'll be in trouble.

Any one of half a dozen or more teams could hit 20 points, with the best chances going to North Platte, Lincoln High and Beatrice, not necessarily in that order.

The crucial concern for Central is sprinter Roger Sayers, who must be in top shape to aid the cause.

But the chart has Central scoring in 10 events, and no team will come close if the Eagles do that. Even if Sayers doesn't defend his titles.

Weightmen Carry Hopes

There's a trio of weightmen at Broken Bow who could carry the Indians to a smashing Class B triumph. Charles Hircock, Don Niedt and Ron Devish could well score high in both weight events. That, plus points from sprinter Kent McCloughan and a point or two in the relay would put Broken Bow out of sight.

If these weightmen fail to come through, watch the sprints, where Imperial could win if Rod Brethower wins both, and the 440, where Spencer Puls will carry Holdrege hopes and Bill Martin will need to garner points for Ord.

There are several critical events in Class C. Both hurdles, for instance, where a high finish by O'Neill St. Mary's Larry Tomlinson, who is also expected to win the shot and score in the discus, would signal a victory for his team.

If Tomlinson doesn't win the hurdles, however, the broad jump could settle the issue. Roger Merchant of Polk, who may also sweep the sprints, Allen Wengert of Arapahoe, who could win the 100 and 440, and Mullen's Charles Rector, member of a depth-laden team, are among the leading broad jump candidates.

Hemingford should also finish high in Class C, but probably can't be the winner.

Depth Vs. Clint Skinner

Class D is virtually a battle of Red Willow's over-all strength against Elsie's one man team, Clint Skinner.

Skinner, defending sprint champ, could also add the broad jump and score 18 points for his team.

But Red Willow could tally around 30, which would easily defend its title. If the Zephyrs slip, however, Bartley could leap ahead with it's individual ace, Eugene Premer.

Skinner in his 3 events, Premer in the high jump and 4 other events, and Red Willow's Marv Teel in the high hurdles, 440 and discus, are the key men in the D championship race.

Ski Race Site Same

San Francisco (AP) — Squaw Peak remains the site of the men's downhill ski race for the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley. A spokesman for the organizing committee said an announcement from Los Angeles that East Peak in Nevada had been designated for the race was incorrect.

NWU Spikers Meet Midland

. . . In Final Dual Meet Today

By Paul LeBar

Nebraska Wesleyan's track squad, "'rested and getting well," according to reports of Plainsmen Coach Woody Greeno, gets its final crack at dual meet competition this afternoon at Fremont while meeting Midland College.

The dual affair, Wesleyan's 4th of the campaign, wraps up the Plainsmen schedule preceding the Nebraska College Conference meet May 22-23.

'No Holding Back'

Coach Greeno, whose forces are unbeaten except at the hands of NCC Kingpin Kearney State, contemplates no holding back during the final tune-up, although the Plainsmen are ranked as heavy favorites.

The veteran mentor indicated Wednesday that two Wesleyan competitors under wraps in recent meets would get full trials.

The duo consists of Middle Distance Runner Dean Sell and Sprinter Charlie Trautman. Both have been hobbled by leg injuries throughout the season.

Sell underwent a partial trial during a triangular meet two weeks ago, but Trautman has been out of competition since April 3.

Takes 27 Members

The Greeno troupe includes 27 members for the meeting. Midland is expected to offer toughest opposition in the 440, mile, two-mile, javelin and high jump.

The Warriors' Ray Lanik will hook up in a lively duel with Wesleyan Sophomore J. V. Olson in the javelin, while Eugene Bargenquast is expected to battle Wesleyan's Gary Hofmann and Sell in the quarter-mile event.

Midland's corps of high jumpers includes Delton Blank and Larry Collier, both of whom clear the 6-foot barrier regularly. The Warriors' Jerry Otte ranks as a tough competitor in both the mile and two-mile.

Sidelights of the meet include the performance of Plainsman Larry Cook in the discus. The Chester senior, following a slow start for the season, recently cracked his own school mark on two consecutive occasions.

He was credited with 4 flips over 150 feet in practice sessions this week, the best of which was measured at 155-4. Cook's school standard is 147-9½.

Red Willow, Tobias, Elsie Class D Pacers

By Al Beebe

Last year, Red Willow won the state Class D track crown by virtue of two big boys who scored 15 points. Larry Reiners swept the weights and Stuart Couse got a 3rd in the discus.

This year, depth with strength in several events may bring Red Willow another title. Tobias could win it on the same formula—depth.

Or a fellow named Clinton Skinner might cop the crown single-handedly for Elsie.

Skinner is defending champion in both sprints, and is a top candidate in the broad jump. A triple win would give Elsie 18 points.

That may not be enough. Red Willow hopes for points from several sources.

Top first place possibilities are the 880 relay team, which set a district Class D record, and high hurdler Marvin Teel,

Chiefs Slate Doubleheader For Tonight

Still hoping for a little cooperation from Old Man Weather, Lincoln's Chiefs and the Burlington Bees are scheduled for a make-up doubleheader at Sherman Field tonight, the night originally slated for wind-up a 3-game set.

All-day rains Tuesday wiped the first contest off the books Tuesday night, and Lincoln General Roger Bottorff ruled the Chiefs' diamond too wet for play for the Wednesday skirmish.

Bottorff indicated tonight's twin-bill, starting at 6:30 with a 7-inning encounter, would make up for the postponed Wednesday game.

Scheduled to pitch for Manager Ira Hutchinson's Lincolnites are Ron Teunis (1-0) Al Brice (2-0) in the nightcap. Both are righthanders.

Bottorff said Chiefs fans would still be able to take advantage of the Family Night plan despite the twin attraction. Under the plan, a whole family is admitted for a $1.50 fee.

Final Fonner Feature To Sunny Boy S

Lincoln Star Special

Grand Island—Sunny Boy S was winner of the feature Fonner Park Handicap purse of $3,500 here Wednesday as the Grand Island track closed its 1959 racing season.

Total handle for the meeting was a record $3,617,104, nearly a quarter-milion dollars over the 1958 total.

Jockey Terry Armstrong, who mounted two winners during the final day's program, nudged Boyd Morris for top riding honors. Armstrong totaled 31 winners for the season.

Only 95 Fans At Sioux City

Sioux City (AP)—The smallest crowd here since baseball returned to Sioux City in 1947 saw the Soos lose to Fox Cities, 12-8, Wednesday night in the Three-I League.

Only 95 persons turned out on the very cool night. All were given free passes by the Soos' management for another game.

Fox Cities had a 5-run second inning, highlighted by Zorro Versalles home run for 3 runs, and erased a 7-6 deficit with 3 runs in the 8th.

Banks Slam And Hobbie Cuff Cincy

Chicago (AP) — Ernie Banks' grand slam homer in a 7-run 3rd backed Glen Hobbie's 3-hit pitching for a 10-0 Chicago Cub victory over the Cincinnati Reds Wednesday.

It was the first grand slammer for Banks, 1958 major league home run champion, since 1955, when he belted a record 5.

Banks' smash into the left-center bleachers was his 8th homer of the season and it chased Cincinnati starter Bob Purkey. It also gave Banks 33 RBIs for the year and pushed him ahead of Cincinnati's Frank Robinson for the league lead in that department.

Hobbie, who struck out 6 and walked 5, yielded a pair of singles to Ed Bailey in the second and fourth and a two-bagger to Johnny Temple in the 5th.

Topeka Homers Down Foe 10-6

Topeka, Kan. (AP) — The Topeka Reds blasted 4 home runs to back up the 6-inning shutout relief pitching of Jose Padilla here Wednesday night and went on to defeat Cedar Rapids 10-6 in a Three-I League game.

A slim crowd of 263 paid fans, with an additional 130 in on Ladies Night, shivered through 38-degree temperatures to watch the 3-hour, 5-minute contest.

Shaw Sets Down Bosox On 5 Hits

Boston (AP) — Bob (Buck) Shaw, getting a starting job after 14 relief assignments for Chicago, shut out Boston on 5 hits for a sparkling 4-0 victory Wednesday.

The triumph was the 5th in a row for the White Sox and moved them to within one game of American League leading Cleveland, idled by rain.

All the blows off the 25-year-old righthander were singles including Ted Williams' first of the season—a poke to left through the shift.

Shaw did not allow a walk while lowering his shiny earned run average to 0.81.

In the White Sox' previous 25 games this year, the 190 pound New York native had done 14 relief chores.

Shaw was acquired by Chicago in a trade with Detroit last June and in 40 games had a 4.74 ERA.

The Chicago control artist got all the support he needed when his teammates combed Boston starter Frank Sullivan for 4 straight singles and two runs in the first inning.

Sullivan, who was supposed to miss his turn due to a right forearm bruise, retired the first two men to face him before Jim Landis, Sherm Lollar, Del Ennis and Earl Torgeson singled in order.

Melby Score Cops Honors At LCC Stag

Bud Melby had the low gross score for 18 holes at Lincoln Country Club Wednesday during the club's Iron Derby Stag. First low net honors for 18 holes went to Dr. Lynn Sharrar, and Bob Long compiled the second low net total.

Don North shot low gross honors for 9 holes, and O. E. Jerner had the low net score over the same distance.

Other winners: Nearest to pin on No. 9, Charles Flansburg; Nearest to pin on No. 18, Bob Reynolds; Nearest to blind score on first 9, Jim Ebel; Most 3s on 18 holes, Dr. Hubert Capek; Most 6s on 18 holes, Dr. N. R. Miller.

Club Professional Bud Williamson said an opening golf breakfast would be held Sunday morning preceding low-net 4-some play. Deadline for entries is 5 p.m. Saturday.

Also slated at LCC is district qualifying Monday for the National Open golf championships, which includes 36 holes play beginning at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Williamson said the first tee would be available to club members at approximately 9:30 and 1:30.

Dosek, Chadwell Low At HCC Stag

Ed Dosek and Gene Chadwell both fired 3-over-par 75s for low gross honors on 18 holes Wednesday during a stag event held at Hillcrest Country Club.

Dosek also had the low net total for the full course with a 73-stroke total, including two strokes handicap. Glenn King fired a 35 for low net honors on the first 9, while Chadwell's 35 was low net score for the second 9.

Blind bogey guests' special event winners were Sens. Bill Moulton and Stan Portsche.

Other winners:

Long drive No. 1—Waldo Winter. Long drive No. 10—Doug Koser. Closest to pin No. 8—Ed Smith. Closest to pin No. 12—Chadwell. Runnerup low net first 9—Ed Smith, 37. Runnerup low net second 9—Ken Brown, 36. Runnerup low gross 18 holes—Vern Walker, Rod Dudley, Bob McVicker.

Green Bay Snaps DM Win String

Des Moines (AP) — Green Bay scored in first inning to end Vern Carson's shutout streak at 16 innings and went on to a 5-3 victory Wednesday night over Des Moines in the Three-I League.

Jim Hamilton singled after two walks for the first run and his bloop double helped Green Bay to two more in the 3rd.

Fran Boniar, who had singled, took third on Hamilton's double and scored on an infield out. Carson's balk scored Hamilton.

Four successive singles and an error by first baseman Cal Emery gave Geen Bay its decisive two runs in the 6th.

Don Williams' single drove in the first run and the other scored on the wild throw home by Emery.

Bill Hunter almost became the first Green Bay pitcher to go the distance, but needed help in the 9th.

Before Sugar Ray Can Be Reinstated

NBA Prexy Says Basilio Must Sign

Mullens, W.Va. (AP) — Reinstatement of Sugar Ray Robinson as middleweight champion hinghes on whether Carmen Basilio signs a contract to meet the deposed titlist in a Sept. 21 match, the president of the National Boxing Assn. said Wednesday.

"There are a lot of things to be considered before I'll poll the NBA executive committee on whether to reinstate Robinson," Dr. Ward Wylie said at his Mullens home.

"For one thing, although Robinson has signed, I have no concrete evidence that Basilio is going to fight him. It takes two to make a contract and it takes two to make a fight."

Robinson, 39, signed a contract Tuesday to fight Basilio on Sept. 21 in Philadelphia's 100-000-seat Municipal Stadium.

The big question, however, was, will Basilio, the No. 1 middleweight contender, agree to the fight?

The NBA withdrew its recognition of Robinson as world middleweight champion on May 4 because Robinson had not fought for more than a year and "failed to keep his agreement with the NBA to defend his title," Wylie said.

Robinson won the crown from Basilio March 25, 1958, but hasn't fought since.

"If there is definite assurance that Robinson and Basilio will fight in the near future," Wylie said, "I'm certain the winner would be recognized as the world champion."

But Wylie reiterated he would not poll his 15-member executive committee until Basilio signs for the fight.

Three Teams Lead Field In Class D

who had the fastest qualifying time. Teel is also a point possibility in the 440, the discus, and the high jump.

Virgil Couse could score for the Zephyrs in the 880, while Vernon Esch is a low hurdle possibility. Ron Hanthorn could add points in the pole vault. All 8 Red Willow qualifying positions are among the leaders.

Tobias also has 8 qualifiers, but only Jim Fisher in the 440 and the mile relay team qualified among the top 5. Bartley is a stronger team threat, also with 8 qualifiers, including Eugene Premer.

Premer has high jumped 6-2 this year, and is a threat to the Class D record in that event. He is also qualified to compete in the high hurdles, shot put, discus and broad jump. Bartley also qualified the fastest mile relay team, and has an outside chance for points from halfmiler Jim Proud and Rod Crampton in the 440.

In addition to the threat by Premer to the high jump record, Skinner is a record possibility in all 3 events he enters.

The Elsie ace already owns a share of Class D century record at 10.1 and has done 10.0 twice this season. He has also bettered the 220 record of 22.8. The broad jump standard is 21-7½, and Skinner has soared 21-4.

Other top Class D stars include Neil Schnuerle, Naponee, who qualified with the fastest 440 time (52.9), tied for the top high jump (5-10½), and will also broad jump. Yutan's Don Heldt may be his stiffest 440 competition.

Here is the State Class D rundown, with number of qualifiers from the 99 teams, returning champions, Class D records, and the district qualifying meet leaders:

HOHN . . . new record.

BEATRICE'S HOHN ADDS PENTATHLON

Bob Hohn of Beatrice won the University of Nebraska high school pentathlon championship Wednesday with 4,702 points while St. Mary's of O'Neill took the team championship with 14,591 points.

In winning the crown, Hohn set a new pentathlon record of :14.6 in the 120 yd. high hurdles. The mark bettered a time of :14.7 set by Leo McKillip of McCook.

Some 102 boys participated in the pentathlon with 24 schools having full teams.

Winning the team championship for St. Mary's of O'Neill were Larry Tomlinson, Gene Schneider, Lambert Belina and Larry Donohoe.

Tomlinson set a new pentathlon record for the shot put with a heave of 56-8 beating the old mark of 54-3 set by Fritz Davis of Lincoln Northeast in 1947.

Tomlinson was also runnerup to Hohn in the individual scoring with 4,687 points. Third was Bruce Johnson of Polk with 4,080, followed by Eugene Premer of Bartley with 3,865 and Bill Martin of Ord with 3,861.

Runnerup in the team category was Ord followed by Polk and Ravenna.

English Team Upset

Rio de Janeiro (AP)—Brazil stunned England's touring all-star soccer team 2-0 Wednesday before a delighted crowd of 150,000 at the huge Maracana Stadium.

Sooners Weekend Foes Of Husker Baseballers

Big 8 Standings

	W	L
Oklahoma State	14	1
Missouri	7	2
Iowa State	8	4
Oklahoma	5	6
Colorado	4	5
NEBRASKA	3	7
Kansas	1	9
Kansas State	0	8

Oklahoma's Sooners come here this week end for 3 baseball games against the Nebraska Cornhuskers.

Friday's game will start at 3 p.m. but the Saturday doubleheader has been switched to 10 a.m. to avoid conflict with the state high school track championships.

Oklahoma State continues at the top of the Big Eight standings. If all the Missouri games are forfeited, as has been indicated in news stories, it will not affect the Cowpokes. However, a general shuffling will take place among the lower clubs.

If Missouri loses all games played to date it would move the Huskers into 3rd place with 6-4, Oklahoma would have 6-5, Kansas State 3-5 and the Tigers would fall to the bottom rung with 0-9.

Jockey Is Injured

New York (AP) — Jockey James Wyatt, 22, suffered a possible fractured collarbone Wednesday when he was thrown from his mount, Allan Adale, in the 3rd race at Belmont Park, a steeplechase event.

Tigers Deal Larry Doby Back To Sox

Detroit (AP) — The Detroit Tigers Wednesday sold outfielder Larry Doby to the Chicago White Sox for more than $20,000 cash.

No other player was involved in the deal.

Doby came to the Tigers during spring training in a trade with the Cleveland Indians that sent Tito Francona to the Indians.

He was hailed as the answer to the Tigers' needs for a distance hitter, but his 12 hits in 18 games included only two for extra bases and both of those were doubles. His average this season is .218.

Doby is 34 years old and played for the White Sox in 1956 and 1957. The first Negro in the American League, Doby came into the majors with Cleveland in 1947.

No exact price was disclosed. The Tigers said only that the figure was in excess of the waiver price, which is $20,000. Doby's departure leaves Detroit one under the player limit.

In Boston, the White Sox announced the optioning of first baseman Ron Jackson to Indianapolis of the American Assn.

Publinks Tourney To Be At 2 Sites

Omaha (AP) — Nebraska sectional qualifying for the National Publinks Golf Tourney will be over two courses.

The first 18 holes of the required 36 will be played on the Dodge Park course in Council Bluffs June 22 and the second 18 over the Pioneers course in Lincoln the next day.

Forty entries have been received so far, the committee-in-charge announced.

Braves Club Signs Baylor Frosh Whiz

Milwaukee (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves have announced the signing of Baylor Freshman Garnet Steubing of San Antonio, Tex. to a contract with Austin in the Class AA Texas League.

Steubing, an 18-year old right-handed pitcher, is 6-2½ and weighs 185. He is expected to report about June 1 and will be assigned to Midland, Tex., in the Class D Sophomore League.

Drivers Ordered To Flame-Proof

Indianapolis (AP)—All drivers in races sanctioned by the United States Auto Club have been ordered to treat their uniforms with a flame-retarding solution.

Henry Banks, USAC director of competition and himself a veteran driver, posted notice that effective today all USAC drivers must wear long-sleeved treated uniforms, even in practice.

Use of the Boric Acid-Borax flame-proofing solution has been recommended by USAC in the past but has never been mandatory.

Easter Released By Buffalo Club

Buffalo, N.Y. (AP) — Luke Easter, who led the International baseball league in homers and RBIs in 1956 and 1957, has been released outright by the Buffalo Bisons.

Easter, 38, played for Cleveland from 1949 to 1954 and was named top player in the American League in 1952.

The club also released Fred Hahn, 30, who compiled an 11-8 record last season and is 0-2 this year. He has been with the Bisons since 1955.

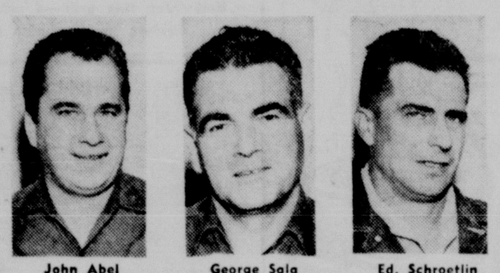

Easter was not immediately available for comment.

Revamp Of Nurseryman Laws Approved

A measure revising and strengthening laws relating to nurserymen and their products was one of 6 passed by the Legislature Wednesday and sent to the governor.

LB511, introduced by Sen. Ray Simmons of Fremont, places new restrictions on itinerant sellers of trees, shrubs and such nursery stock.

Under the bill, an agent may operate only under the name of the nursery dealer he represents and may obtain nursery stock from no other source.

The bill also prescribes that "dealers and nurserymen, distributing nursery stock from more than one store or place of business, sales ground or heeling-in ground or selling nursery stock from motor vehicles or other vehicles traveling about the state, shall secure a dealer's certificate for each place or each traveling vehicle from which nursery stock is sold or distributed."

The measure also says that only sound, healthy nursery stock may be sold.

The bill received 39-0 approval on final reading.

Other bills passed:

LB76 (Tews, Lautenschlager)—Providing for prompt handling before a magistrate of motor vehicle cases involving persons believed to have driven on suspended or revoked license, and persons resisting arrest. 40-0.

LB405 (McHugh, Swanson)—Revising banking laws to delete references to savings, commercial and co-operative banks. 37-0.

LB459 (Judiciary)—Establishing venue in civil actions against nonresidents for motor vehicle accidents. 38-0.

LB507 (Klaver, Tews)—Placing a member of the Nebraska Pharmaceutical Assn. on the State Board of Health. 38-0.

LB647 (McHugh, Vosoba)—Providing how cemetery associations may reclaim unused portion of any lot or subdivision. 40-0.

'59 State Weather Spells Variety; First 3 Months Declared 'Unusual'

Variety is the spice of life, they say. If this is true, Nebraskan's lives will never be dull, for the weather this year has been a variety of snow, rain, dust, hail, tornado warnings, thunder, lightning, sleet, fog and drizzle, the U.S. Weather Bureau reports.

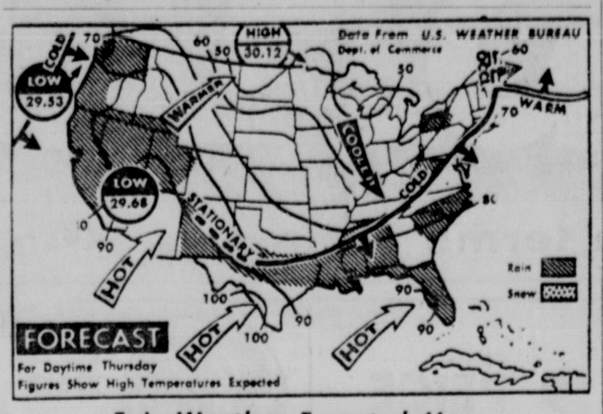

April was the nearest a normal month of the first 4. Average temperatures ranged from 3 degrees below zero in the southwest to the state's high of 89 degrees for the month at Red Cloud.

Total precipitation was considerably above the long-term mean from the vicinity of Grand Island east-northeastward and northwestward to the Iowa border. Elsewhere precipitation aas deficient. Most of the moisture fell as snow over the western and north-central portions of the state, but as rain in the southcentral and southeast.

However, the first 3 months were quite unusual. The total snowfall in January was 12.2 inches, equalled or surpassed only 6 times in 50 years. The average temperature was lower only in 1957 in the last decade. The average wind was higher than normal and the number of cloudy days set a record.

February was the 3rd coldest in the past 10 years. Other aspects were near normal, with the exception of Feb. 9 which included fog, glaze, snow, blowing snow, thunderstorms with lightning and 2 inches of sleet.

March was the wettest in the 50-year history of Weather Bureau records.

Fair Weather Expected Here

Western New York state, the Carolinas and the Gulf coast states will have showers Thursday. Occasional rain is expected for Nevada, northern and central California, the northern Cascades and parts of the central and southern Rockies and central Texas. Cooler weather will prevail from New England westward to the Great Lakes and southward to the southern Plains. Fair weather and a warming trend is expected in the northern Plateau area. (AP Wirephoto Map)

Spring Field Day Set For Concord

Concord, Neb. — A spring field day will be held May 29 at the Northeast Nebraska Experiment Station, reports Dale Flowerday, superintendent.

The event begins at 1:30 p.m. at the Station and will feature 4 discussion topics:

—Alfalfa hay vs. alfalfa pellets for wintering heifers;

—Concrete tilt-up construction;

—Demonstrations of minimum tillage;

—Demonstration of a hay conditioner.

Interstate Route Price Review Slated

Omaha (AP)—The City Council and the Douglas County board have decided to review prices paid for land on the interstate route in Omaha.

The county board directed a study be made and the council asked its planning director and public works director to report on the buying of right of way.

The council acted at the request of Councilman James J. Dworak and the commissioners at the request of board member John Cavanaugh.

Both Dworak and Cavanaugh referred to a report that Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cowdery had been paid $23,000 for .91 of an acre of land needed for the interstate. Cowdery is vice president of the World Publishing Co.

The Cowdery home is at 11250 Pacific Street and is located on a 11½ acre tract.

Sharp Drop In Unemployment Noted

Unemployment dropped sharply in Nebraska during April due to an accelerated spring upsurge in the demand for almost all types of workers.

The monthly unemployment bulletin issued by the State Labor Department showed some Nebraska cities setting records for placing workers in jobs. In almost all cases unemployment was down from last month and in all cases sharply down from April of 1958, a recession month.

Hastings reported April job placements represented a "3 year high." Beatrice said the number of work applications as of May 1 was "lower than anytime during the past several years." North Platte reported the "demand for workers is up 30% over a year ago."

Only Sidney, Scottsbluff and Nebraska City did not report sharp gains in the number of jobs available.

Statewide figures showed 8,155 persons registered for jobs at the beginning of May, 4,200 fewer than on April 1 and 5,700 less than a year ago May 1.

A town by town report:

Alliance: Supply of available workers off from 131 the first of April to 67 at end. Most registered job seekers are clerical or sales, domestic and unskilled labor.

Beatrice: On May 1, number of applications was lower than anytime during the past several years.

Columbus: Only 315 job seekers were registered on May 1—163 less than a year ago.

Fremont: Labor demand was brisk in April. Construction, manufacturing and trade led in hiring.

Grand Island: Employment opportunities continue to show improvement; 652 were placed, including 133 on farms.

Hastings: Area total of 517 registered job seekers compared with 907 a year ago; 381 workers placed on jobs during month is a 3-year high.

Kearney: Many seasonal workers secured employment in April. Rapid decline in supply noted.

Lincoln: Spring upsurge in job demand continued in April with 750 workers returning to jobs mostly in construction and agriculture. Nonfarm gains were confined to season expansion in construction and service. Unemployment decreased 1,100 during April.

McCook: Early in April, 191 persons seeking work; at end of month, 103.

Nebraska City: Non-farm workers requested up slightly from April, 1958—323 to 306, but under March, 1959, with 475.

Norfolk: Shortage of experienced workers will improve employment opportunities for inexperienced young workers entering the labor market at the end of the school year.

North Platte: Registered unemployment 28% below a year ago. Demand for workers up 30%.

Omaha: Applications on file at month's end lower than last month by 20% and for April, 1958, by 37%.

Scottsbluff: Job openings received totaled 262, compared with 147 last month and 346 a year ago.

Sidney: Comparatively normal employment conditions in April.

Horse Thieves Sought At G.I.

Grand Island, Neb. (AP) — Hall County Sheriff Sam Stobbe was looking for horse thieves Wednesday.

A sorrel mare bought by motel owner R. J. Oshlo as a riding horse for his children was stolen early Wednesday. Thieves backed a truck up to the Pinecrest Motel, loaded the animal and took off.

Doniphan Minus Grocery Store

Doniphan, Neb.—Flames of undetermined origin completely destroyed Doniphan's only grocery store.

Wayne Mays, Doniphan fire chief, said the building, equipment and stock of the Jones IGA Grocery "is a total loss" as a result of the blaze. This leaves this community without a grocery store except for a filling station which handles some food items.

Firemen were able to save an adjoining cold storage locker plant, although the plant freezing equipment was believed a total loss.

Ike Defends Use Of Servicemen As Chauffeurs

Washington (AP) — President Eisenhower defended the use of military personnel as White House and Pentagon chauffeurs and waiters. He said it would cost the taxpayers a lot more money to replace them with civilians.

This drew a prompt challenge from Rep. Frank Kowalski (D-Conn), a retired coonel who has been arguing that making servants of service-men is a misuse and waste of military manpower. Wednesday, he questioned too whether it wasn't wrong for the Army to have a band.

To a reporter's questions about Eisenhower's news conference defense of the age-old use of soldiers in servant jobs for high ranking officers, Kowalski said:

"I am told by the comptroller of the Army that the average cost of a soldier to the government is about $7,600 a year. I believe the President can hire good civilian chauffeurs and waiters for that salary.

'Cheaper'

"If the President means he can work soldiers longer hours than he could civilians, he might by this kind of slave work make it cheaper."

Kowalski said somebody should alert Eisenhower to the fact the Army is losing one of its 15 divisions because of an 8,692-man cutback ordered in its strength by June 30.

"If the President gave up his drivers and the Army made an effort to stop using men unnecessarily in other places," Kowalski said, "it could get 8,692 men and save the division."

He said the significant question is whether Eisenhower "is justifying the draft on the basis of hiring soldier chauffeurs instead of civilians."

Waiting

Kowalski's claim that the Defense Department is wasting 250 million dollars a year by assigning service personnel to jobs as cooks, drivers and waiters was brought up by a reporter at Eisenhower's news conference.

The President replied that he had no report on the subject but went on to say that all the White House chauffeurs, except for his own Secret Service driver, are from the Army.

10 Lincoln Students Get Spelling Awards

Ten Lincoln high school students were honored by the National Office Managers Assn. Wednesday evening at a spelling awards dinner.

The Lincoln chapter of the association sponsored a spelling contest which included 2,500 Lincoln students.

Honored with certificates for "proficiency in spelling" were: Marilyn Justice, Mary Shugrue, Barbara Beals, Virginia Aandahl, Carol Holden, Cheryll Hoon, Judity Goin, Don Hanley, Donna McGuire and Janet Wasemiller.

Bovey Sees No Early Reply To Brooks Charges

By Don Walton

State Penitentiary Warden Joseph Bovey's report to the Board of Control will not be ready before Friday, the warden estimated Wednesday.

It is quite likely that the detailed answer to charges made against Bovey by the governor's office won't be delivered before next week, the warden said.

Bovey is checking all details and every aspect of the charges which prompted Gov. Ralph Brooks to ask the Board of Control to fire him before handing in his written report.

It was understood that actual writing of the report had not been started Wednesday night. A thorough check of related details has occupied much of the warden's time since Monday night.

Meanwhile, Board Chairman Mrs. Catherine Martin said she is continuing to check board records, presumably on such matters as foodstuffs and maintenance costs at the prison.

The Board will have no comment on the matter until it has had an opportunity to study Bovey's reply, she said.

Administrative Assistant Robert Conrad, who delivered the governor's request that Bovey be relieved of his duties, chatted briefly with Board Vice-Chairman Charles Leeman Wednesday to ask when a decision might be ready.

Leeman was understood to have told him the time was uncertain.

Conrad told newsmen "the governor is insisting something be done promptly."

"Facts are facts," he said, "and no amount of point-by-point checking will change those facts."

Board members have told newsmen that each of the 14 charges leveled at Bovey will be checked "point by point."

REA Veto Override Failure 'Most Significant'—McGinley

Washington — Failure of the House of Representatives to override the President's veto of the REA bill was described Wednesday by Rep. Don McGinley as "probably the most significant event that has happened in this Congress."

"It proved," the Fourth District Democrat said, "that the President will be able to stop any legislation that this heavily Democratic Congress may pass."

"It also had a dampening effect on the more liberal members of the Democratic leadership who might, had they been successful in proving the Congress had the strength to overcome presidential objection, have tried to pass some of the more ambitious money bills."

The REA bill would have taken from the secretary of agriculture the right of reviewing loans to REA districts which exceed $500,000.

'Basic Difference'

"It was a basic point of political difference," McGinley said. "The Democrats believed that the REA administrator should be given the freedom to operate on the policies which have been developed over the years."

REA estimated that 95,050 farms in Nebraska, or 94.3% of all farms recorded in the 1954 census, were being served by June 30, 1958, McGinley said. Of these electrified farms, 80.3% are served by REA borrowers.

Up to Jan. 1, 1959, REA had approved $166,345,157 in electric loans in the state to 37 borrowers, 5 of them cooperatives.

On Jan. 1, 1959, the state's borrowers had paid $13,931,197 in interest and repaid $18,137,102 of principal on their government loans. In addition, they had paid $6,295,065 ahead of schedule.

NY Stocks Rise To Record High

New York (AP) — Blue chip steels, motors and chemicals paced the stock market as it rose to a record high Wednesday. Trading was active.

Pivotal issues rose from fractions to more than two points on a broad front. The average was bolstered by such gains as 7 for Du Pont and 5½ for Allied Chemical.

Based on the rise in The Associated Press average, the quoted value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange rose an estimated $2,200,000,000.

It was the biggest advance since April 2. The leadership of high quality stocks, representing solid investment demand, heartened brokers. Electronics and other space age stocks were mixed although some were very actively traded.

The advance was reinforced further by a continued rally of the rails which responded to mounting freight revenues and favorable comment in the street.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose $1.70 to a record $229.10, topping the previous high of $228.70 reached April 21. The indnstrials rose $3.40 to a record peak, the rails rose 80 cents and the utilities rose 20 cents.

The Dow Jones industrial average advanced 5.39 to a record 633.05, topping the previous high of 629.87 reached April 27.

Of 1,217 issues traded, 533 rose and 492 fell. There were 42 new highs for the year and 38 new lows.

Volume was 3,540,000 shares compared with 3,550,000 Tuesday.

Thirteen of the 15 most active stocks rose and two fell.

Corporate bonds declined.

U.S. government bonds backed down to historic lows in quiet dealings.

Bond sales totaled $6,040,000 par value.

Markets At A Glance

NEW YORK (AP) —

Steers Steady To 25c Lower

Omaha (AP)—Fed steers and heifers were steady to 25c lower on the Omaha market Wednesday.

Butcher hogs advanced 25 to 50c as receipts dropped and fat lambs sold around steady.

OMAHA

Hogs: Salable Wednesday 7,000; generally 25-50 higher; U.S. No. 1, 2 and 3, 190-240 lb. butchers 15.75-16.50; several loads 16.75; about 130 head 200-220 lbs., 17.00; 240-270 lbs., 15.00-16.50; 270-330 lbs. No. 2 and 3, 13.10-15.50; sows 300-550 lbs., 12.00-14.00, a few lots 300-330 lbs., 14.25.

Cattle: Salable 8,000; calves 50; fed steers steady to 25 lower; good many sales yearling type steers 1,150 lbs. and down only steady to weak; fed heifers average choice and better mostly other heifers steady to 25 lower; cows fully steady to strong; other classes steady; load high choice near 1,400 lb. fed steers 30.00; load choice 1,550 lbs., 29.75; majority choice steers 28.25-29.00; good and low choice 26.00-28.00; load high choice with few prime around 975 lb. fed heifers 29.75; high choice 950-1,000 lbs., 29.50; majority choice heifers 27.75-29.00; good and low choice 24.50-27.50; utility and commercial cows 18.50-20.50.

Sheep: Salable 2,000; all classes generally steady; wooled slaughter lambs scarce; good and choice 122 lbs., 22.25; mostly choice shorn No. 1 pelts 18-100 lb. slaughter lambs 22.25-22.65; 1 load mixed lambs and yearlings good and choice but mostly good 110 lb. shorn No. 1 and 2 pelts 20.00; cull to choice shorn slaughter ewes 2.00-6.00; mostly choice native spring lambs 77-99 lbs., 25.00-25.50.

CHICAGO

The bulk of butcher hog sales Wednesday were at prices strong to 25 cents higher but the $17.25 top was up only 10 cents from Tdesday's high and paid very sparingly, for only 19 head of 213 lb No. 1 grade.

Although No. 1 lots under 220 lbs were scarce, the few lots of 190-215 lb mostly No. 1 grade went at $17.00-17.25. The 190-220 lb mixed 1-3 grades went at $16.75-17.00 and mixed 2s and 3s in the 200-220 lb range at $16.25-16.75.

Sows were steady to 25 cents higher and cleared at $11.75-14.50.

The cattle supply was a heavy 17,000 head and the market for slaughter steers was weak to $1.50 lower for high choice and prime grades over 1,100 lbs and steady to 25 cents lower for average choice grade and below.

The high choice and prime kinds scaling 1,050-1,400 lbs sold at $30.00-33.25, good to average choice $27.00-30.00.

Heifers were steady to weak, bulls strong to 50 cents higher and vealers steady. A few mostly prime 1,025 lb heifers moved at $31.00, the good to choice at $26.00-29.50. Bulls were $22.50-25.00 for utility and commercial and vealers were $36.00 and down.

In the sheep market, slaughter lamb prices advanced again as much as 50 cents a hundredweight. A few spring lambs weighing 80 lbs and grading good to choice brought $24.00-25.00 and wooled kinds $24.00 while shorns moved at $21.00-23.25.

Hogs: 9,000; strong to 25 higher; No. 1-3 190-220 lbs. 16.75-17.35; 2-3 220-240 lbs. 16.00-16.50; 2-3 240-260 lb 15.50-16.00.

Cattle: 17,000; calves 100; high choice and prime steers weak to 1.00 lower; average choice and below steady to 25 lower; heifers steady to weak; vealers steady; high choice and prime 1,050-1,400 lb. steers 30.00-33.00; good to average choice 27.00-30.00; load prime 1025 lb heifers 31.00; good to choice 26.00-29.50; standard and good vealers 26.00-35.00; few choice 36.00

Sheep: 1,500; slaughter lambs steady to 50c higher; part deck good and choice 80 lb. spring lambs 25.00; three decks good and choice 94-109 wooled slaughter lambs 24.00; good and choice 93-122 lb shorn 21.00-23.25.

Ike Prods For Action On Big Wheat Surplus

. . . And On Housing Loans And Gas Tax Hike

Washington (AP) — In an urgent special message President Eisenhower Wednesday tried to jar Congress into action on housing loans, higher gas taxes, and — most emphatically— the great wheat surplus.

Eisenhower called for legislation to head off "an impending disaster in wheat." He declared, too, that home and highway building face damaging interruptions across the country unless Congress moves with dispatch.

Congress received the message with little stir, or indication of doing as Eisenhower asked.

The Federal Housing Administration is about to exhaust its mortage insurance authorization, Eisenhower said, and needs a 6 billion dollar increase to prevent lapse of the program at the height of a thriving home-building season.

He declared the increase in the federal motor fuel tax from 3 to 4½ cents a gallon which he asked in January should be enacted to avoid serious disruption of the huge pay-as-you build highway program.

Unless Congress acts, he said, the government cannot this year apportion funds so that the states can let road contracts.

The government now holds 2½ times as much wheat as the nation eats each year, Eisenhower said. By July, 1960, the 1½ billion bushels in storage will represent a 3½ billion dollar investment by the taxpayers. Storage and handling costs alone will be close to half a billion dollars annually.

The Eisenhower administration wants to abandon the parity formula for determining wheat price supports, and substitute a percentage of the market prices in recent years. It also wants to get away from mandatory production controls.

Within two hours after Eisenhower's message reached the Capitol, the House Agriculture Committee voted 17-8 to have the government support wheat prices at 90% of parity for the next two years. It voted for a 30% reduction in wheat acreage allotments.

Dr. Wilson, Former Prof At NU Dies

Lincoln Star Special

Toronto, Can.—Dr. H. S. Wilson, 54, former University of Nebraska English professor, died here following a heart attack.

Dr. Wilson, a well-known Shakespearean critic and scholar, joined the University in 1935 and was a member of the English faculty until 1946.

He then joined the staff of the University of Toronto where he served until his death.

Prior to coming to the University of Nebraska, he served on the faculty of Grinnell College in Grinnell, Ia. He acquired his Masters and Doctorate Degrees from Harvard University.

Survivors include his wife, Louisa, a son John and a daughter, Lydia.

Satch Offers To Relax 'Em

By Eddy Gilmore

Geneva (AP) — Trumpeter Louis Daniel (Satchmo) Armstrong blew into town Wednesday and offered to relax the East-West foreign ministers with his red hot music.

Armstrong

"I don't know nothin' about politics," he said "but if I could get (the ministers) to sit still and listen, well then, Daddy, maybe I can relax them a little."

The sun was hot and he mopped his perspiring face.

CARMICHAEL

Hopeful

Washington (AP) — Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) told the Senate "I hope we will not back down" in demanding that the Army be built up to 900,000 men and the Marine Corps to 200,000.

Mental Health Board Urges Launching Of Youth Project

The Lancaster County Assn. for Mental Health voted unanimous approval Wednesday to the Lincoln Youth Project plan for increased social work in schools and elected Mrs. L. A. Enersen as its new president.

Mrs. Enersen succeeds Mrs. Dorothy Hedke, who was named vice-president.

Other officers elected at the annual meeting include Mrs. Robert Simon, secretary; the Rev. L. C. Pretty, treasurer, and Miss Gwen Mead, nominations chairman.

New board members are Mrs. J. W. Maxcy, Judge Herbert A. Ronin, Dr. C. Vin White, Bennett Martin Jr. and John R. Johnson.

Backs Youth Plan

The board voted strong approval to the proposal that a social-work experimental project be established in the Lincoln school system for recognition and treatment of troubled and maladjusted children, and urged the Lincoln School Board to adopt the project.

"In almost all cases the school is the first community agency to come in contact with a child. Teachers are in a key postition to recognize symptoms of maladjustment in the early stages, before problems become severe," the board stated.

"We feel the schools have an obligation to help prevent children from becoming delinquent or maladjusted. We also believe an adequate program with trained and qualified personnel would prevent many children from becoming serious school problems," Mrs. Hedke said, speaking on behalf of the board.

MRS. L. A. ENERSEN

The association listed the following accomplishments in its annual progress report:

1. Acceptance as a participating member of the Lincoln Community Council.
2. Serving on the Mental Health Clinic Planning Committee of the Community Council.
3. Active representation on the Juvenile Court Committee.
4. Recommended adoption of the legislation concerning mental health, retarded children, and Juvenile Court.
5. Representation on the Health Education Committee—City Health Department.
6. Representation on the Health Advisory Council of the Community Council.
7. Contributed financially to two local philanthropic projects—the LARC School, and the new Boy Scout Troop at the State Hospital.
8. Participated actively in the National Mental Health Week by sponsoring and carrying out "Operation Friendship", urging visitation of State Mental Hospitals. We helped with the open house given by the Nebraska State Hospital.

THREE COUNTIES PRESENT REDISTRICTING PROGRAMS

. . . Final OK To 4 Reorganization Petitions

Three counties have presented new redistricting plans to the State Committe for Reorganization of School Districts, Hubert Wolfe, director of reorganization, announced Wednesday.

The committee also gave final approval to 4 reorganization petition plans and qualified approval to 12 others.

Counties presenting plans at Tuesday's meeting were Wayne, Cedar and Harlan.

Wayne County committee chairman Gordon Nuernberger led a group of proponents of a plan for the Winside area which proposes to form a new district in the area where there are now 25 districts. If formed, it would have an assessed valuation of $6,494,455 and enrollment of 296 elementary and 200 junior and senior high school students.

Tews Led Opposition

A group opposing the plans was led by Sen. David Tews of Norfolk.

Cedar County chairman Hollis Holcomb of Hartington led proponents of a plan for the Coleridge area which proposes a new district out of 8 and parts of two others. If formed it would have $3,241,968 assessed valuation, 247 elementary and 136 junior and senior high school students.

Owen Brodersen of Coleridge led a group of opponents to the plan.

Harlan County's plan for the Orleans area was presented by Wolfe, in absence of a representative. It would group 3 present districts into one having $1,444,288 assessed valuation and 128 elementary and 113 junior and senior high school students.

Don Russell of Alma led a group opposed to the plan.

The petition plans approved were:

Douglas and Sarpy—dissolve district 45 in Sarpy and attach to District 1 (Omaha) in Douglas.

Harlan-Furnas—dissolve district 51 in Harlan and attach to joint District 77, Harlan-4, Furnas counties (Oxford).

Seward—attach portions of District 5 (Milford), to District 9, (Seward). This is adjustment of boundaries.

Thayer—dissolve District 82 and attach to District 7 (Hebron).

Petition plans approved but with certain additional recommendations in each case:

Blaine and Custer—dissolve joint District 25 in Blaine, 266, Custer and 21 Blaine, and attach to District 9 (Dunning), in Blaine.

Cherry—dissolve District 146 and attach to Districts 18 and 77, and also dissolve District 179 and attach to Dists. 18 and 52.

Garden—dissolve Dist. 51 and attach to Dist. 23.

Kimball—dissolve Dist. 18 and attach to Dist. 6 (Bushnell).

Knox—dissolve Dist. 104 and attach to Dist. C-24 (Center).

Knox—dissolve Dist. 27 and attach to Dists. 37 and 45.

Pawnee—disolve Dist. 58 and attach to Dist. 54 (Burchard).

Pawnee—dissolve Dist. 41 and attach to Dist. 69 (Lewiston).

Seward—dissolve Dist. 59 and attach to Dist. 60 (Utica).

Washington and Burt—dissolve Dists. 18, 21, 23, 36, 40, 53 in Washington and 9, 12, 42 in Burt County and attach to Dist. 22 (Herman).

Webster—dissolve Dist. 62 and attach to Dist R-31 (Bladen).

Webster—dissolve Dist. 22 and attach to Dist. R-31 (Bladen).

The committee withheld approval from 13 petition plans.

720th Bill Asks Revolving Fund

The Legislature Wednesday received its 720th bill of the current session.

Introduced by the Education Committee, the measure authorizes counties to establish a revolving fund in connection with the program of special education for physically or mentally handicapped children.

Sen. Arnold Ruhnke of Plymouth, who asked the bill's introduction, said the need grows out of a situation in Thayer County. The county employs a speech therapist to work in 8 schools. Because the therapist's pay must be pro-rated among the schools, he receives 8 separate paychecks each month. Each school then is reimbursed separately from the state with funds provided for this type of educational service.

The revolving fund will permit single payments, Ruhnke explained.

$3,000 Award Granted Widow

The widow of an Elmwood man who died Apr. 15, 1958, was awarded a $3,000 judgment Wednesday by a Lancaster District Court jury.

Mrs. Anna Lee Haith had asked $6,000 from the Prudential Insurance Co. in connection with her husband David's death. She had contended his death resulted from an accidental gunshot wound.

The insurance company contended Haith committed suicide, and she therefore was not eligible to collect under the policy he carried.

Mr. Haith's death had been ruled a suicide by the Sheriff's office.

Park Plaza One-Family Zoning OKd

The City-County Planning Commission Wednesday approved single-family residential zoning for Herbert Bros.' Park Plaza subdivision near 66th and Vine, but deferred similar action on the proposed University Terrace subdivision near 44th and Greenwood.

Both areas are presently zoned for light industry, but are proposed for residential development in plats now pending before the City Council.

Action on the proposed University Terrace subdivision was deferred until drainage problems can be solved by the city engineering department.

The feasibility of surface drainage structures has been questioned. The suggested alternative is a $20,000 storm sewer system.

An ordinance on the proposed plat was read twice last Monday on the request of Herb Heumann and comes up for final consideration by the Council.

In other action, the Commission reconsidered and approved multiple-family zoning for 3 lots on the northwest corner of 14th and Stillwell.

Herman Reusch requested the change from two-family zoning because of adjacent commercial and multiple family zoning. At a previous meeting, the Commission had denied the request.

Also approved was a special permit to the Bon-Aire Trailer Court at 3100 No. 35th for enlargement to a 17-unit court. It now has 10 units.

NU Midshipmen To Be Honored At Sunday Rites

The University of Nebraska Naval ROTC unit will present its 1959 proficiency awards to midshipmen Sunday in 2 p.m. ceremonies at Love Memorial Library.

A. C. Breckenridge, dean of faculties, will speak at the ceremonies. The Rev. Gilbert M. Armstrong of Lincoln will give the invocation and benediction.

DULLES IS SAID 'SOME' BETTER

Washington (UPI)—Former Secretary of State Dulles was reported Wednesday to be showing "some improvement" in his battle with pneumonia. Gen. Nathan F. Twining was said to be making "very satisfactory progress" in his recovery from lung surgery.

The Defense Department said Twining, who underwent a chest operation, spent a quiet night. It said his temperature and pulse were normal.

Dulles developed pneumonia last week to complicate his fight against cancer.

Dulles was visited for about 30 minutes Wednesday by President Eisenhower.

Crashers Nabbed

Vatican City (UPI)—Papal Swiss guards detained a group of Italian reporters and photographers who had "crashed" the Vatican gates and turned them over to Italian police.

The incident, believed to be the first of its kind, occurred during a visit by Prince Albert of Belgium to Pope John XXIII.

Low Bid On Salt Creek Main $150,000 Under Estimate

By Virgil Falloon

Roberts Construction Co. of Lincoln is the apparent low bidder at $649,833.20 for construction of the Salt Creek sanitary sewer interceptor main from 4th and N to the State Penitentiary area near 14th and Pioneers.

The Roberts bid, specifying asphalt-covered, corrugated steel pipe, was $70,633 below the lowest bid specifying reinforced concrete pipe and was $152,167 below the engineers' estimate.

Five firms submitted bids on the estimated $802,000 project. They were opened Wednesday at City Hall.

The engineer's recommendation is to go to the City Council Monday, but City Engineer Carl Fisher told the Council two weeks ago that "acceptance of the low construction bid using either material will be recommended."

Low bid acceptance will make approximately $150,000 available for the badly-needed extension of the Dead Man's Run interceptor sewer from 51st to approximately 63rd and Vine.

Several hundred acres of new residential subdivisions are stalled for lack of that sewer extension.

Material Switch

Use of asphalt-coated pipe would mark the first time any material other than reinforced concrete has been used.

Alternate bids specifying steel pipe were requested in order to "create a competitive situation on materials."

The Salt Creek sewer will be financed with the remaining $300,000 in the 1957 $2.5 million bond issue and a new issue of $500,000.

Its construction will eliminate the dumping of raw sewage into the creek.

The bidders were:

Roberts Construction Co., $649,833.20 using steel pipe.

Dobson-Robinson Construction Co., $720,496.27 on concrete pipe and $708,042.07 on steel pipe.

Gjellefald Construction Co., Forest City, Ia., $772,275.50 on concrete pipe.

Douglas Bros. Construction Co., Topeka, Kan., $711,937 on steel pipe.

Chambers Construction Co., Lincoln, $726,584.60 on concrete pipe and $699,837.80 on steel pipe.

J. V. Connell To Close NU J-Week Slate

. . . Publishing Official

An address by J. V. Connell, sales manager for Packer Publishing Co. of Kansas City, will close University of Nebraska Journalism Week activities Monday.

Connell will speak to the Lincoln Ad Club at its noon luncheon at the Cornhusker Hotel. Journalism students interested in advertising will be club guests at the luncheon.

Connell also will speak at a special convocation of journalism and advertising students at the Historical Society Auditorium Monday at 11 a.m.

"J-Week" activities, which began Sunday, will include a Friday address by Howard Allaway, Popular Science Monthly editor.

Other activities include the annual J-School picnic at 6 p.m. Friday at Pioneers Park and the annual J-School banquet 6:30 p.m. Saturday.

Pledging of Theta Sigma Phi, women's professional journalism honorary, will be at 8:30 a.m. Saturday.

During the week, 36 journalism students were in Hastings and Grand Island, publishing the towns' daily newspapers.

Timmy, Easter Seal Child, Rests After Hip Operation

Timmy Austin, 7, of Gothenburg, was resting "as well as could be expected" Wednesday afternoon after an hour-long corrective hip operation Wednesday morning at the Lincoln Orthopedic Hospital.

A victim of cerebral palsy, Timmy is the 1959 Nebraska Easter Seal Child.

Dr. Floyd A. Alcorn, superintendent of the hospital, said Timmy's leg was in a cast. He will probably remain in the hospital for 6 to 8 weeks, Dr. Alcorn said.

Nearly two years ago Timmy spent 4 months in the Orthopedic Hospital after corrective operations on his knees. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Austin of Gothenburg.

Meals On The Fly

Snetterton, Eng. (AP) — Four birds have been hatched in a nest built in a bulldozer, and the bulldozing goes right on. The mother bird, a wagtail, calmly follows the machine in its gravel pit workings and feeds the youngsters on the fly.

Traffic Club Fetes 13 Former Heads

Thirteen of the past presidents of the Lincoln Traffic Club were honored Wednesday evening at a dinner.

Plaques were presented to the 13 in recognition of their service to the club.

Those honored were: L. J. Becquet, 1940; Sam Crouse, 1941; Carl Bintz, 1942; A. A. Wigg, 1943; C. M. Chenoweth, 1946; K. C. Niles, 1948; Joe Clark, Omaha, 1951; H. B. Frappia, 1952; Herb Willey, 1953; D. W. Dotson, Topeka, 1954; Neil G. Nelson, 1956; Jack Cunningham, 1957; and Ray Ostran, 1958.
